

Abundant Warrior - Identity

I am an abundant warrior. I am loved by God, and lovingly placed within this army/family of The Warrior Class. I am a part of the whole, and my part matters. I am a glorious warrior. I am learning new things. I am gaining new understanding. I am increasing in knowledge. I am sharpening new skills. I am upgrading in the areas of technology and training. My mind is a sponge, absorbing new knowledge and understanding, retaining what I learn, enabling me to both practice and release as an abundant warrior. I am able to do all things with My God.

Abundant Warriors - Crafted Prayer

Thank you, Father God, for how You created us. Your Beloved, abundant warriors, with brains and bodies that can learn, adapt, grow, and flourish in any environment You place us in. Your heart of love infuses us with hope in all things - and that includes technology! Thank you, Father God, for the army/family of warriors and leaders you have surrounded us with - in You we are whole - all parts working together for Your good as Your Bride. We proclaim that we are Your abundant warriors, in all areas we practice in The Warrior Class, including technology. We proclaim that You have created us to learn and understand new things, absorb new knowledge, gain new skills, and retain it all beautifully for our increased impact and Your glory. Thank you, Papa, for who we are now and who we are becoming, Your abundant warriors in all things, from You, through You, and to You, for Your glory forever! Amen.
