Letter to TWC from Graham

Part of Kingdom leadership is knowing our Kingdom assignments: what they are and when they change. As a Warrior Class, we've all been upgrading in recent months and you've covered tremendous ground! The final piece of that transition will be the expansion of Allison's Kingdom Assignment. She will be stepping out of the hands-on directorship of The Warrior Class to a more apostolic, advisory role and stepping into a more central, creative role with Brilliant Perspectives.

Allison and I have been developing the Lewis and Clark aspect of our relational partnership over a number of years. Together, we are cartographers for a whole new journey in the Spirit-led life and the context of the Kingdom, which is God's territory for all. We have been happy to do that, developing spiritual warriors with TWC and now we get to expand that into a variety of forums both sacred and secular...what fun!

We are obviously making Jesus, the new man lifestyle/journey, the incomparable Holy Spirit, and the overarching Kingdom to be the key elements to every aspect of our training and development for Kingdom communities around the world.

Allison's value to me personally, and as a friend, is that we complement one another in creating huge learning opportunities, ideas and concepts of Kingdom... and then earthing them in pragmatic, practical ways with revelation and wisdom. Our shared passion is to create a dynamic change agent using life circumstances as our classroom and laboratory. TWC was our first experience with that and has been on the receiving end for many years - and you will continue to live in that focus and intention-ability as we move forward.

Allison's role in Brilliant and her input with TWC has been founded on our friendship/partnership. The Warrior Class will continue to derive the benefit of this upgraded perspective. We have learned (and will continue to learn together) to spiral upward into new heights of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Jesus and ourselves.

Christine Casten will be stepping into the role of Director of The Warrior Class. It is important to me that this third member of our team should have the same qualities as Allison and I in leading, mentoring, overseeing, processing and developing both a culture and a people to suit God's primary purpose for such a time as this. Christine does.

Continued...

We trust her to guide TWC in daily matters, coach our leaders, envision and expand our territory as God directs—in partnership with our apostolic oversight, connecting regularly with Allison and giving us reports on its progress and future.

Together, we have loved our involvement with TWC as a primary laboratory in creating a lifestyle lived above circumstances; one that is connected to the real business of life, which is exploring the Kingdom within that is created by the presence of Jesus in the power of the Spirit. Together, they enable and empower us to know the Father more fully and to provoke a Heaven to earth relationship and function that is powerful, overcoming and life sustaining.

Thank you for your continuing prayers for Theresa and I, your pioneering spirit and your continued faithfulness as we explore what is possible in the realm of raising up spiritual warriors, champions and game-changers. And for your support of Allison as she joins me in mapping new territory.

-Graham

TRANSITIONS

By Allison Bown
Co-Founder of TWC

Yes, the final part of this TWC transition is mine... something that I only became aware of gradually as it unfolded, but I don't think too many of you will be surprised. I've had the joy of pioneering TWC with Graham and being the architect of our most recent transition. But all good architects know when it's time to let the builders bring the vision into the next level of reality.

Beginning April 1st, my role is simply changing, not disappearing. I look forward to contributing to TWC publications, video training and seeing you all in Anaheim. And while Kelly will take the lead, I'll still continue my work with the Champions Team coaches and members for the next few months. TWC will reincorporate as its own entity and I will be serving as its Chairman of the Board (cue Sinatra!), while Christine serves as the Executive Director. Just as I've worked to prepare Christine for this upgrade, I will continue to be her chief advisor much as Graham has been to me and the three of us will chat from time to time.

But this transition is much more about what is possible for all of you now. My shift creates opportunities for everyone to rise to a new level of intentionality, creativity and vision. Christine, our directors and our coaches have each dedicated themselves to their own personal development and have such passion and vision for TWC... and for you.

What is your contribution to who we become next?

The Warrior Class sparked fresh ideas about how we approach spiritual development. It's focus is very specific: joyful spiritual warriors and prophetic intercession – so there will never be another TWC. But I look forward to partnering with Graham to encourage many other fellow explorers in their discovery of the new man or woman that they are in Christ. It truly is a Lewis & Clark adventure for us. And you're a part of that.

You're the forerunners of what's possible in the Kingdom and the intercession foundation for us to discover more. Your prayers for us, prophetic intel and the continued exploration of our Key Territories are hugely important in where we go next. We need strong, joyful spiritual warriors now more than ever, as we know we're headed into contested territory. Would we have it any other way? Nope. A champion always loves a good fight.

Continued...

I'm also looking forward to providing you with more connections to what we're doing at Brilliant. There will be a new monthly feature in Frontline called "News from Santa Barbara" and I will continue as the chief liaison between Brilliant and TWC. I will be working both in Santa Barbara and from my home in the Sierras, dividing my time between these two beautiful regions. My husband Randy and I will be house hunting soon for a second home in Santa Barbara, which should be fun.

Thank you for your ever-present kindness and grace towards me, and your passion for The Warrior Class.

I fully expect that to be extended to Christine and your current leaders, because it's who you are. Christine has been well prepared and her unique gifts and expansive vision of TWC are needed for this next stage of the journey. Enjoy loving the learning together.

And to the many fellow warriors who have become my friends; those of you who have encouraged me, prayed for me and for my family, hosted me in your homes, sent me notes and gifts that strengthened - you have my deepest thanks. I've always received far more from you than I gave. I treasure our relationships and look forward to our future.

So onward... let's go and discover what's out there for us now!

Allison

ELEVATION

By Christine Casten
Director of The Warrior Class

One of the things The Warrior Class celebrates is raising up warriors, champions and game changers. Through this core value, we learn to intentionally look for open spaces and step into new territories of growth. As Graham and Allison have shared, we have a fabulous opportunity to see this in action.

In Anaheim last year, we talked about the limitless possibilities available to us because of our new training formats. I've seen it as if Graham is on a mountain range and TWC has been making the journey to that Higher Place, joining Graham to share an elevated perspective. From that place, we can see both the territory we've traveled and a strategic view of the many possibilities we now have available and continue to explore.

This new elevation also means that Graham no longer has to hold that ground... because we do! He's free to go even higher. We recognize that this new positioning also opens up more space for TWC to expand our growth and discovery.

In these moments, we experience what Kingdom partnership looks like. We advance, and as we do, we create space for others to move, shift and grow. We do this in tandem, united together as a Brilliant partner, determined to see our shared Kingdom Assignments come to pass.

As a prototype community, we expect things to look a little different. We want to see what's possible. We are eager to discover what synergies emerge when God shifts people and creates new roles for them to fill.

Allison's new role with Graham, Brilliant and her on going connection with TWC creates a new expression of what we have always done: encourage a champion's heart to walk out and explore identity in an expanded territory.

My journey is no different. It is my privilege and honor to partner with our Directors, coaches and each of you, as I continue to dream about what's possible through partnering with our Directors, coaches and each of you, I continue to dream about what's possible, pioneer, scout new territory, explore the expanse of New Testament prophetic intercession, and join with the promises and provision God has for The Warrior Class and each of you.

Together we will experience some grand adventures. We will see Kingdom in unexpected and miraculous ways. TWC will continue to see warriors, champions and game changers... each of you... launch into the fullness of all God created you to be.

Christine

The Warrior Class Training

Tremendous Resources at your fingertips!

Taking advantage of the many options for training calls is one of the best ways to connect to other warriors in TWC. In addition to face-to-face contact, you get to ask questions and hear from the experiences of other warriors.

Another option is to be a listener on the calls. You get to hear the conversations “live” and still have the option of asking a question directly or through the chat feature.

Through various member surveys we found this: Those who felt the most connected in TWC and had continual boosters added to their journey along the way were those who jumped onto the calls. The calls are much more than simply “training.” They are about connection, relationship building and strengthening your warrior experience!

TRAINING CALL TESTIMONIES

Empowering call! Definitely gave me an upgraded perspective of the battle. So appreciated the visuals and activations you used. Valued everyone's insight.

Great tools for being an overcomer, more than a conqueror and atmosphere shifter.

This month's focus: The New Man ~
Present – Future Life

*Key Territories are found on the website
Under: Resources/Training Journals 15 & 16*

March marks our first Key Territory Prayer Focus. It is exciting to think we are creating reservoirs in heaven with our prayers that we can connect with now AND in the future!

This month our community will focus on New Man ~ Present/Future Life.

As you are praying our Warrior Declarations individually for this territory, I encourage you to make any notes in your journal of things the Lord reveals or expands.

With all the new this year, is there anything old that needs to stay dead?

TESTIMONY

I had an incredible experience that happened in this regard. One day I was sitting outside and those thoughts were trying to bombard my mind.

In the distance I saw a pair of bluebirds sitting on their house and all of a sudden I heard in my spirit the Disney song, "Zip-a-Dee Doo-Dah." When I went to YouTube and looked up the whole song, I laughed and laughed and how Holy Spirit takes such joy in teaching us in such unconventional ways!

Now, if that negative junk tries to bring me down, I literally hear Zip-a-Dee-Doo-Dah in my spirit and every time I just laugh.

It may sound crazy, but it's a big transformation for me!

To replace that awful negative self-talk with the joy of the Lord, especially when it happens in such an unconventional way, is a huge upgrade for me!

Graham's Australia Flight Prayer Times:

Pray for Grae

Graham is going to be speaking at the “In His Firelight Conference” in Sydney, Australia this month. As joyful intercessors, we will also have an opportunity to cover him in prayer hour by hour as he is in transit to Australia starting on March 19th at 10pm PST through March 20th at 4pm PST. His return travel will be on April 1st at 3am PST through April 2nd at 9am PST.

Keep your eyes out for a schedule of time slots to volunteer to pray for Graham on Facebook about a week and a half prior to his travels.

There are two ways to participate, you can sign up on Facebook or please send Karleigh Wood an email with the hour you would like to pray for Graham in your time zone to: twc.intel@gmail.com. As you know, it is a delight to engage with the Father's heart! If you have any strong testimonies, we would love for you to share them with us at twc.intel@gmail.com.

Warrior Declarations for New Man ~ Present/Future Life Territory:

Thank You Father that Your heart is set on us as new creations in Christ: a people who are bringing Your fullness of tomorrow into today, with joy, confidence, peace and passion.

We declare and release into this Territory:

Joy in the new men and women that all believers are in Christ.
Old things have indeed passed away. Behold, ALL things have become new in Jesus.

We unlock any promises, prophecies or inheritance in Christ that the enemy has stolen or that have been let go of. We release them to be returned as provision for the present and future as intended by the Lord.

We lock up any weariness from poor past experiences and unlock a fresh perception of God's future that brings hope, joy and renewal.

Instead of focus on fixing sins, we release a clear lens for God's development of righteousness.

Instead of shame, we release a revelation of acceptance in the Beloved.

Instead of a right to be wounded, we release the right to be healed.

Instead of wanting new, but thinking old, we agree with God for a Kingdom people who are fully aligned with the mind of Christ in perception, mindsets, thinking and language.

Instead of fear of failure, we release a revelation of God's faithfulness so magnificent that it overwhelms fear with perfect love and produces a generation free to risk, explore and establish the territory of the New Man on earth as it is in heaven.

We ask in the name of Jesus, that all people would encounter and come to know these truths. That the eyes of their hearts would be enlightened; reforming their perceptions, mindsets, language and actions to align with the mind of Christ and the heart of the Father.

Director of New Members

January was the first month that our New Member Coaches created invitation videos and held conference calls in the area of their passion. Our new members now have a variety of voices and teaching styles on our calls. I am passionate about the way the new members navigate through their first three months. I enjoy hearing people share the discoveries found on their journey.

A common denominator is that we all share the same hunger for more... and the Holy Spirit is committed to partner with us.

The new member calls are a way to connect and get to know each other. They also enlighten us to what is possible when we turn great teaching into a lifestyle. If you are a new member we welcome you to TWC and to our conference calls!

Meet Barbara:

I interviewed a wonderful lady named Barbara Morrish. Barbara has been listening to Graham for many years and has been intentionally practicing what Graham is teaching and mining out her identity. In fact, I'll share with you some of her keys:

Barbara created a crafted prayer for each one of her identity statements!

I followed through with asking her for examples of her identity statements. They were solid and distilled into bullet points. Way to go Barbara!

She said that each one should carry weight as she walks them out in life. She has truly been awakened in how God sees her, and is excited to travel and explore with us!

Oh, the joy of New Members!

Been thinking about this quote from Graham—
"God is always relentless. He is relentless against the enemy. He is relentless towards his people in terms of his kindness and goodness." How are you adopting His relentless nature as applied to your own TWC journey and training?

Am relentless is seeking to see every situation through restful victorious eyes. Am relentless in taking advantage of opportunities to give away what I've learned, mostly now through lay volunteer ministry opportunities through my church.

CHAMPIONS TEAM

“Champions Team is a company of warriors who have decided to run harder, go faster, climb higher and endure longer through a group mentoring process. Momentum is key in everything we do! Available through application after completion of Level 1, we build community through team and training calls, Facebook conversations and pouring back into the TWC community in various ways. We are discovering many upgrades to add to our walk. If you are interested in applying to the Champions Team, you must have completed and turned in your Level 1 by April 15th, 2017. Look for more information in the Member Update.

Well, we are off and running. The starting gun has been shot, the gates have been opened, the flag has dropped... oh alright, we have started this new journey with a bang and have begun our exploration of this new territory that is opening before us. We are excited!

Our coaches have boldly gone where they have not gone before and have created trainings that the Champion Team members have engaged with in a resounding way. The dialogues have been rich, the training has been thought provoking and idea generating, and we have only just begun!

We have delved into creating Crafted Prayers from a corporate prophetic word. We have been discovering different ways of processing and dialoging with Daddy. We have also been practicing Enjoying our Joy and how to be intentionally joyful in our circumstances. We have had mindset shifts through meditating with the Father using Lectio Divinia as a gateway.

We have Permission Granted to Get Free and Stay Free and we are learning how to stand in our Warrior identity. The opportunities abound, relationships are building, and the exploration is revealing treasures.

One of the wonderful opportunities in our training calls is hearing what coaches are passionate about and their insights into various topics. Hearing the passion that our coaches speak with and the breakthroughs they experienced, has been a real and personal way to get to know them better. In turn, they discover more about each of you on the call as you share your experiences, mind shifts and “ah ha” moments with one another. A beautiful combination that results in a wonderful, shared journey – a true “band of brothers” experience for us all!

Here are just a couple Facebook comments of encouragement and evidence of the journey we are sharing together:

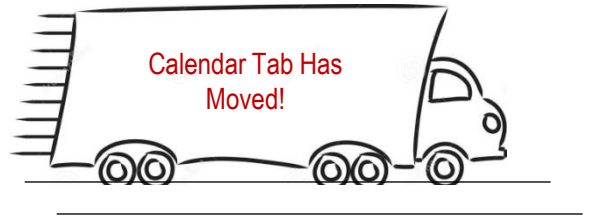

Thanks for sharing the journey!

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT:

JAN LIMERO

Warrior Team Member

My family and I moved from the Chicago suburbs to Bakersfield, CA in 2003 to start churches. It was a huge adventure with much “land” to explore. When I found The Warrior Class it gave language to all of my spiritual adventures within the church planting adventure.

About me:

The picture above is my favorite “hat!” It is NOT my favorite because it is flattering; that’s for sure! It’s because it means I am on an Adventure and it’s going to be a good day, probably with a good fight involved to get where I am going. I especially like wearing this hat when it is accessorized with a headlamp. That means we are going somewhere dark, preferably underground. Heights and depths are equally adventurous and I love to explore. In fact, that is one of my Identity Statements:

I am an Explorer of the Kingdom, an Adventurer who will scout out the land, and a Warrior, not afraid, even of dark places. I will be given the treasures of darkness for myself and others. (Is 45:2-3).

Becoming the Beloved:

I was introduced to Graham at a time I was in a pit. The hole was quite deep, and I questioned if I would get out. But, through the words and ideas that came across to me in “The Art of Thinking Brilliantly,” I knew I had found someone who knew my heart. Becoming the Beloved lifted my spirit until it was free to soar. My Dad had always been my champion. As the beloved, I could now see that God championed me as well. It was a year of listening to Graham before I applied to TWC and the rest, for me, is history. The journey has definitely taken me off my map.

Upgrades:

In what ways are your thoughts and language being upgraded in TWC?

This is probably one of the greatest benefits of TWC. I have trained to take my thoughts captive (2 Cor. 10:5) and tutor them to align with what God is doing in my life, what He is thinking and what He is saying about the specifics of my life. TWC gives me broad outlines and then motivation to explore my particular territory – my own personal promises from God. I hear His voice for this season, this day, this adventure, and it guides me. Because of TWC, my thoughts are bigger, more free, more relaxed, with more permission. My thoughts have upgraded from frustration to curiosity; my language has upgraded from whys to what ifs. I love learning and claiming the “insteads” of God.

Continued...

God's Nature:

What part of God's nature are you discovering?

I am currently discovering God's nature as Guide! The Warrior Class has expanded the territory I get to explore. I do enjoy exploring literal, physical territory, high and low, but exploring spiritual territory is even more thrilling. I have spiritual Promised Land to explore and occupy! And God has said He wants to be my Guide in this season as I explore His promises and permissions.

Becoming the Beloved:

Because of my training with TWC I have truly come to love who God has made me to be. I am exploring, embracing and living by my Identity Statements and enjoying the Journey!

I am an intercessor for kings.
(James 5:16) ("Kings" are people who steward Kingdom territory- people like Graham).

I have a ministry of avail-ability
(the ability to avail in any circumstance God calls me to)
(James 5:16).

My strength comes from being quiet and confident.
(Is 30:15, 2 Cor3:4).

I am a well-watered garden.
(Is 58:6-14).

Inheritance Words:

One of my Inheritance Words is: "I will go before you and level the exalted places, I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron, I will give you the treasures of darkness and the hoards in secret places, that you may know that it is I, the LORD, the God of Israel, who calls you by your name." Is 45:2-3.

I get to confidently march into dark places and grab the treasure because the Lord has already gone before me! But I am just following Him. I don't presume to make up my own Adventure. God is my Guide! Some days I would like to be on the mountain top, but find myself in the depth of a cave instead.

Like Jesus, I can only safely and effectively do what the Father is already doing. So, I go only where He is inviting me to follow Him. He knows every inch of this Land, and He graciously guides me through the dark places and the high places. He is the best Guide ever!
