

WORSHIP EBB

*Special Edition for meditation
The Warrior Class Gathering ~ Longmont, Colorado ~ 2012*

*These are selections from our recent time together in Longmont, Colorado.
We will be mining out these many prophetic deposits for a long time and giving more details from our Gathering in the upcoming Frontline.*

But this next week, July 24-31st, is a time to put down our training and focus on meditation and worship for all that God imparted to us.

*Whether you were there in person, or with us through intercession, you will find your vision expanded by the words here.
Confidence, joy and rest in the God who loves us will grow, as we declare these rich promises.*

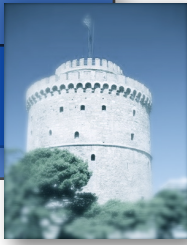

*Graham increased the spirit of acceleration he has been declaring for several years.
Instead of five years growth in 12 months
- we now have permission for five years growth in SIX months!
There is no better place to launch into that upgrade than from worship, praise and thanksgiving.*

As you read God's various expressions of His passion for us, explore the heart of God for you and for us in worship and rejoicing ~ Allison ~

*In Longmont, Graham opened his heart and read several of his Inheritance Words the way he reads them to the Father, of which Psalm 27 is one.
The Father's heart of passion for us was imparted in a new way.
Psalm 27 will be a key focus for us in this new landscape, but especially these verses.*

*One thing I have desired of the Lord,
That will I seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord
All the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the Lord,
And to inquire in His temple.*

Psalm 27

Living from the High Tower

~ A Defining Word for The Warrior Class ~

In this past time, you have chosen to leave the chaos of the ground war. You have come close enough to the High Tower of My affection for you, so that I could reach out and draw you inside. You have willingly held My hand and followed Me ever upward, even though the light was often dim and you could only catch glimpses of the fight below.

At times, you could hear shouts of caution or pleading to return to the lower battle ground. You were missed... You were needed... Some wondered how this climb was helpful. There were times you wondered as well, or were surprised by the unexpected twists and turns. The stairs were steeper than you first imagined. With each bend of the spiral climb, you had to make a fresh decision to hold the hand of the One who was guiding you ever upward. To trust that I knew the way better than you did.

The air of stillness and rest inside the strong tower of My affection is becoming your internal atmosphere as well. You are and are coming to a deeper place of rest and peace. In your limited understanding, you have grown in joyful dependency, trusting the One who leads you. Your divine intuition is becoming your chief tool of navigation and peace is no longer conditional on knowing every detail of the path ahead. It will now come from the security you feel in the Hand that has faithfully guided you.

As you go higher, My hold will change. What began as a strong, reassuring grip will become the gentle touch of invitation. You have and will climb until you seem to hit a ceiling, finding that I have stepped back to let you go first to discover the door. What would have been heavy to move at ground level, now opens with ease, until the ceiling above has become your new floor.

*With awe and wonder, your breath is taken away by the view from up here.
At the top of My high tower, the air of My passion for you renews, empowers & embraces.
From here, the chaos of the battle is dim and the perspective is far reaching.
From here, My strategies becomes evident and the enemy's plans are obvious.
My majesty and provision will be readily apparent from this elevated view.*

Formally independent fighters, you are a Warrior Class company, responding as one to what I am doing next and now.

*It is from this place, that together you will learn to fight from My affection.
It is here that you become trained snipers, taught in My embrace to fire with deadly accuracy at our one sworn enemy. Your aim is true, never bringing injury to the captives held, only keys of grace.*

It is here that your words are refined to sharp arrows, your prayers to lightning strikes, your thoughts becoming fully aligned with Mine. You are releasers of atmospheres: of glory, goodness and permission with every declaration.

*You do not fire your words in response to earthly commands, but together in rhythm with My heart.
My kindness, My goodness and My mercy set the pace.
Intentionality in your training becomes an passionate act of worship & of obedience from love.
Peace and perspective are imparted and cultivated.*

The sense of My pleasure leaves your knees weak with passion, your hearts confident and your minds renewed. It is only from this High Place that My higher ways can become your lifestyle.

This is where you live.

It is a habitation of affection that has never been conquered by our adversary... and never will be.

It is your safe tower, your refuge and your fortress.

It is your launching pad to take Kingdom territory and your training ground to establish your gains.

It is your eternal perspective and our secret place that lives inside you.

And from our dwelling place of victory, we will have - on days - the delight of visiting the ground war. The fight may or may not still be raging, but I have prepared a dance floor in the midst of the battleground to celebrate our lives as more than conquerors. It is unique floor, comprised only of enemy heads. My hand is always extended. Take it... And have the joy of dancing on the enemy's head.

If perchance, we come across a "nearly dead" head, I will smile... and simply dig My heel in a little deeper, until the vague noise is silenced, lost in the sound of our laughter and love.

This is who you are.

A Warrior Class who has chosen not to engage in a ground war.

Ones who submit to high altitude training, for the gain of an elevated perspective.

In spirit and in truth, fighting from rest, joy and love.

Passionately devoted to the the annihilation of evil.

Fiercely committed to freedom for those in its grip.

Ones who know how to dance on the enemy's head together

- on days of grace

- on days of training

- and days of proving

- to dance with abandon and to dance slowly with their Beloved.

Lavishly adored,

Perfected in love,

Exquisitely trained,

Expertly equipped,

Fighting from victory, never merely for it.

Confident... mature sons and daughters of their Father who embrace My true nature as their own.

Friends of Jesus

Joyful companions of the Spirit

Freedom fighters - not content to wait for eternity to bring heaven to earth.

Deeply thankful for all that you have seen.

Joyfully expectant of greater things ahead.

We are a company of one voice, one sound, one mind, one heart...

My voice, My sound, My mind, My heart.

To a world and a church that desperately needs Me ~ And for love of the One that has always loved us.

Warrior Giants

"I come this day to expand the hearts of my warriors to a massive capacity. It is this increased capacity for Me, My Truth, and the keys of My Kingdom, that will empower you to challenge, collide, and overtake the enemy and his forces in your battlefields...It is this increased capacity that will empower you to challenge others to "run harder and run faster" after Me and My ways. It is this increased capacity of your heart that will allow more of My Presence and more of My power to abide within your spirit. You were made to be bigger, to hold more...to hold more of Me...you were made to be the spiritual giants of this generation.

"I have called you to boldly occupy the space between two kingdoms, to run the race of supernatural empowerment, to handle with masterful skill the Sword of the Spirit. You were not made to know the 'average'; you were made to know the 'extraordinary' in My Name."

"As My warrior giants I have called to run faster, harder, and longer...I have given you the expanded heart of the Overcomer. You are men and women of an overcoming spirit, who love to look at the field marked by man as impossible, and say 'nothing is impossible with my God.'"

"You have destiny racing through your veins, you have My supernatural empowerment pulsing through your arteries. Now My sons and daughters, step into this heightened space in the Spirit, this place of expanded supernatural capacity...occupy the field for Me...run fast, run hard, run long, for you have been called to greatness...You have been called to run the race of "Destiny" with the mantle of My Power and Presence upon you. You have been called to be My warrior giants..."

Our deepest thanks to TWC member Codye Reystead for bringing her gifts & warrior passion to Longmont.

Prophetic Declaration released at "Unveiling the Kingdom Conference"

~ Graham Cooke

In the name of Jesus: God is saying to you, "All those words I gave you? That is My absolute intentionality for you. I will you to become that person and to receive those prophecies and to have that anointing. That is My absolute intention and the fullest expression of My will towards you.

In the name of Jesus, I command you to reclaim the word of the Lord. To let it sink into your heart and fill every thought until you become full on the inside. Until you become pregnant with promise.

In the name of Jesus, I proclaim to you that as you partner with the Lord over that word, so He will set in motion a whole series of events that will enable you to occupy that word in reality. He will send you problems and difficulties so that you can have a short cut into your promise. The word of the Lord will test you and you will love it because you know what the test is about - so you're set to pass it. When you have a promise, you can pass the test. When you know your promise, you can pass the test. Your promise is like your cheat sheet.

You're not going to survive anymore, you're going to thrive and prosper. You're going to grow up quickly into all things in Jesus. This is a splendid time. This is a splendid time when the splendor of God is going to rise up in you because you are pregnant with promise. You'll learn what it means to partner with God in the promises that He has given you.

This is it. This is your moment to rise up and occupy a whole new place in the Spirit.

You've got outcomes, beloved. Now you can thrive in every situation because you already know what God is doing. In the foreseeable future, your life is already marked out, it's defined. You're predestined now, in every circumstance to become the person that God saw when He spoke your promise over you.

Says the Lord, "Look and see, you have come into a new place of fruitfulness. Your life is now set to increase in the ways of My fruitfulness and favor. I want you to learn to attack your circumstances with the fruit of My favor.

Take responsibility for your promises. Take responsibility for being fruitful in every situation. The time of leanness and barrenness is over. It's over. It's over. It's over. Enter into your inheritance. My heart is full towards you. I gave you these words that you might define yourself in the majesty of how I see you. Beloved, there is fruitfulness all around you. Each promise is designed to be exponential, not one dimensional.

I am bringing you into a place in your inheritance, where I will you stay, to dwell, to remain, to rest, to explore and to receive fullness upon fullness so that your fullness may grow to a high level. This is the place of Your abiding. I'm teaching you to dwell, to stay and to remain conscious of my favor, using all the promises I have released to you.

You are released to soar in the Spirit of My Favor. You are untethered, no longer earthbound in your ability to receive. There is blessing all around you. Pick it up. Pick it up. Declare to Me, "That's mine".

Declare to the enemy, "Hands off, that's mine." Confess in your circumstances, "That belongs to me, I'm picking it up."

Come into the place of provision and inheritance.
Be filled with the fruit of the Spirit and enjoy My presence and My favor.
Enjoy how I look at you and how I see you.
Talk about yourself in the way I talk about you in heaven.

This is your promised land. Take responsibility to stay, dwell and inherit all that I have for you here. Enjoy the tests. Each test is about joy. You can enjoy the test because you already have the answer. The answer is "yes" and "amen". The answer is, "Yes, that does belong to you. Please take it from Me." Each test has an upgrade attached to it.

I tell you Beloved, I empower you to pass the tests of abiding. Live in your promises. Live in the vision I have of you and allow it to become a living reality. Behold, says the Lord, I give you a quickening spirit. You can make five years growth in six months. Y

You are now in a time of divine acceleration, so this is not a time to walk with me.
It is a time to run.

The Lord says to you, "I am jealous for you to come into your rightful place. Come with Me. Come on this journey. Let me upgrade your story. This is your moment. This is your time. I not only have spoken, but I will continue to speak. Beloved, this is the time of your inheritance - of quick growth.

It's your time.
Don't waste it.
Run with Me.

Live every day under My smile.
Let Me bless you and bless you and bless you.
Let My favor rise up in all your circumstances.

Speak your promises back to Me.
Speak them back to Me in prayer.
Speak them back to Me in praise.
Speak them back to me in rejoicing and thanksgiving.

And there shall be a quickening on each one of them, for I am jealous for you to grow up into all things in My beloved Son.

This is the year of your rising.
So come Beloved.
Come and occupy a place that I have set aside for you.
And be blessed and prosper.

Our Prayer of Response

~ from Thursday night

So Papa - we say "yes".

To our Kingdom identities individually and corporately.
We say "yes" to the process of training and refinement..
We say "yes" to a life in the high tower of Your affection
And "no" to the old patterns of perception.

It is our joy to honor You as we stand tall in the Warrior Class You have made us to be.

To pioneer this way of life and abide in Your love, so that we have an abundance to pour out on everyone we meet and everywhere we go.

We willingly walk through the door into the territory You have set before us and leave it open for all those who will follow.

We step forward. We cross the threshold from an old land into a new one.
From an old mindset into a promised land of Limitless Possibilities..

We set aside every weight, every entanglement of lesser thinking and run with endurance this unique course before us, with stamina, strength and joy in all that is ahead.

Father, continue to infuse us with the atmosphere of the High Places as we sleep, as we rest and as we dream.

Regenerate our capacity to receive deeply and whisper Your thoughts and intentions to us as we rest.
Awaken us with eyes to see You, ourselves and each other with fresh vision as we walk forward in one heart and mind.

In the name of Jesus, for His sake and for the love of the One who has always loved us - Amen
