Who We Are

Breakthrough

By Christine Casten
Executive Director of The Warrior Class

“Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.”
Isaiah 43:19

You are a warrior. You are powerful. You partner with God to persevere through challenges, set your face as flint on the Lord, and press past tension to your next breakthrough*.

GOD BRINGS BREAKTHROUGH

God gives you authority. You overcome and have victory. You are a new creation in Him. You are His and, as His, you have an inheritance to overcome obstacles, subdue the enemy and live from rest.

You are ready. You are poised to fight the good fight and run the good race. Your TWC training, life fully lived and experiences make you ready in season and out of season. At a moment's notice, and with one whisper from His heart to yours, you can jump up or jump in to what is before you. Press past the barrier and lean in - breakthrough is yours.

God is powerful. His power and might reach beyond the heavens into the earth. His arm is not too short and His hands are at the ready. He is doing a new thing.

This thing will spring forth. It is for you. It is for us. It is why He made The Warrior Class ready. It is ours to pursue.

GOD IS BREAKTHROUGH.

God is sovereign. We revere Him. We serve Him. We know Him more deeply each day. The more we know Him, the more we love Him. To know Him is to love Him. To know Him is to fall in love and see passion, grit, hope, determination, delight, fortitude, grace...to have a Warrior Code of Honor rise up within, springing from the foundation of all He is and all we are/can be in Him. This Warrior Code partnered in relationship with God is all we need to leap past any obstacles.

We have more at hand, beyond looking for breakthrough and experiencing breakthrough. Because we are in Him,

WE ARE BREAKTHROUGH.

We have authority in what we live. We bring it to others. Breakthrough is a way of life. We have the power of the overcomer. We live it, breathe it, carry it, pursue it and press into it. We are more than mere mortals who have lost their way and live in a dry and thirsty land. We bring His light into their darkness and resound with His love. We bring Living Water and are often how the river of God springs forth in their dessert.

We are the Sons and Daughters of God who take our place as co-heirs with Christ, Kingdom Ambassadors, Children of the Most High God. We inherited Breakthrough and we steward our Kingdom inheritance well. We are Warriors and God's granted us permission to carry the weapon of breakthrough in us, through us, and to the ends of the earth.

*Our Quick Guide To TWC Terms (Resource tab) defines breakthrough as a) force a passage through a barrier or restraint and (b) to open the way for new developments to occur. Our breakthroughs take us from knowing one measure of glory in the Lord to a greater measure...moving us from glory to glory.

Below are some questions and/or quotes to spark our thoughts and conversations on Facebook. We will post them on FB over the next few weeks. Consider one or all of them...then post your thoughts on our Facebook page as each post comes up. We have seen some amazing treasure shared through these conversations.

What aspect of God was revealed in your most recent area of breakthrough?

What new thing is springing forth in you?

What part of the river of God are you releasing right now?

Re: Blueprint (Intel) gathering process:
What personal revelation has God opened for you?

What are some ways Jesus showed spiritual maturity?

If tent=God's love: How do you tabernacle with Him? others? in love.

If alter=forgiveness: What freedom have come to your life in forgiving others?

What does a Warrior Ambassador look like to you?

What prayers, scriptures, prophetic are you getting for the website upgrade?

A New Definition of Rescue

Psalm 18:16-19

” He sent from on high, He took me; He drew me out of many waters. ¹⁷ He delivered me from my strong enemy, And from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me. ¹⁸ They confronted me in the day of my calamity, But the Lord was my stay. ¹⁹ He brought me forth also into a broad place; HE RESCUED ME because He delighted in me.” (NIV- emphasis added.)

Psalm 18 was sung by King David upon being delivered from King Saul. David was a warrior who was dependent on God in every battle. He knew he couldn't "defeat" Saul like he had defeated Goliath, that wasn't his assignment. Only God could remove the bad King, the source of his oppression.

As New Creatures in Christ, our role in conflict is determined by God's assignment and direction. God is not opposed to rescue, but His rescue has different parameters, a different definition, than can be seen with human eyes. We need a shift in mindset, a new lens, to see how God does rescue.

What if the new testament concept of rescue is not about being removed from a situation, but being rescued, or shifted, from the old mindsets that keep us from seeing that situation through God's eyes?

These verses from Psalms 18 stir a conversation with Holy Spirit that produce Kingdom boundaries and guidelines for the battle so we align with God's outcome. Here are some questions to help you with the conversation:

God, what do you want me to know about this conflict?

What does Your rescue look like for this conflict?

How do You want to support me?

Where is the spacious place You have prepared for me?

What would You have me do?

What is my experience of Your delight in me through this?"

In your current conflicts, how is God defining them, what is your assignment in them, and what does your rescue look like from God's perspective? What if that rescue is really a breakthrough in God's kingdom? In our development towards being More than Conquerors, God's breakthrough is empowering majesty that brings freedom for many upgrades including trust and faith as we align with God's kingdom assignment for us while He removes "our powerful enemy who was too strong for us." His ultimate rescue comes through the breakthrough so that we become more of who we are in Him and the enemy knows bothering us is not worth the effort.

Spiritual Maturity

by Jodi Bradley, Lead Coach

In the natural, maturity is learned from our primary caregivers and relationships, which shape how we see, think, feel, and live.

What's true in the natural is true in the spiritual. The Bible says Jesus only did what He saw His Father doing. He is our example on how to walk in spiritual maturity and what is possible for us to experience. This simple truth holds so much power for us.

Add to that truth the ark, alter, and tent in the Old Testament. The ark represented God's nature as Breakthrough, the alter God's nature of forgiveness and reconciliation.

The tent represented God's nature as Love, creating a place where He can be with us. Again, this truth alone will take lots of unpacking.

Now let's pull that together. Gods nature as breakthrough, forgiveness and reconciliation, and love. The ark, alter, and tent is now in our abiding place. Let me say that again a little louder,

THE ARK, ALTER, and TENT NOW live INSIDE US, our ABIDING PLACE WITH HIM!!!!

The same Father that raised Jesus as a son, is raising us in our abiding place.

What does that mean???? The abiding place is where forgiveness and reconciliation take place. Breakthrough is inside us!!

We don't need to go anywhere, do anything, or perform anything. The ability to see what the Father is doing is in us, raising us and we have the Word of God, Jesus, living in us, and the Holy Spirit in us. Not only that, we also have the word of God, the Bible, to bring confirmation.

Our ability to meet with Him and experience key territories; fullness, limitless possibilities, New Testament prophetic, joyful intentionality, new man identity, grace, and identity in Christ is in our abiding place.

We just had a call covering this topic on April 9th. Find the recording by searching, "Spiritual Maturity: My Part, God's Part" in the search bar on Facebook.

Listen to the exploration as we came together and explored the power of forgiveness and reconciliation with Him, in our tent of meeting. We will also discuss the divine truth of His word in this place from 2 Corinthians 12:9.

"The same Father that raised Jesus as a son, is raising us in our abiding place."

Website Feature of the Month

Prayer Requested

We have some exciting news...This is a HEAD'S UP to an upcoming upgrade to our website and a call to PRAY. As you know, we continue to improve what is available on the website. (see Training Highlight for the most recent additions)

UPGRADE IN PROCESS>>>>

We are upgrading the TWC website so you can have your OWN individual account! YAHOOO!!!! This means you will have your own personal password! You will no longer have to dig through Facebook or publications to find the newest passwords! It will be a password you create and you can personally access.

Exploring possibilities! As you know, we think outside the box. So we have challenged our web designer to come up with some new ways we can give back to you.

NOTE: This is EARLY in the process, and we are still exploring! So, please pray for heavenly wisdom for our web designer on how to code what we hope to offer. We want you to join in so this can be covered in prayer, rather than wait until it is completed and we are rolling it out.

As you know, we are always dreaming with God for how we can enrich and encourage you in your journey. This upgrade is in process and, right now, we do not have the ability to answer your questions about all the details...they are still being created.

We will let you know about these additional features for the website with this upgrade, as soon as we know what is possible for this moment in time.

Of course, all TWC warriors will still have exclusive entry into our private, member only materials, as part of your current membership – along with the MANY other things you already receive as a TWC Warrior.

This is an incredible opportunity for us to pray and get pre-paired with the Lord for what is to come!

THE RISK
TO SAY “YES”
TO GOD.”

Call to Intercessors

By Karleigh Wood, Director of Intel

“This call gives us an opportunity to unite in the Father’s heart, bring His sound together along with all the Break-through we carry...”

We have received several requests to join together in prayer on a call for things within TWC. We are happy to say we have a wonderful opportunity for you!

Through our various trainings, TWC creates many opportunities for personal breakthrough. We first take internal ground for ourselves, then we can take external ground for another. All our victories create an overflow we carry and operate in wherever we go. We freely give what has been given and done in us.

In keeping with carrying forward the breakthrough we bring, we discovered specific prayer is needed to cover the entire internal process of creating a Blueprint Prayer Focus. It helps it run smoothly and integrate all the Lord intends. It covers everyone who participates by removing obstacles and releasing things the Lord wants us to overflow in and impart for the benefit of the Blueprint recipient.

Prior to this, we launched it and experimented with it in the Intel Team, with the vision to next take it to our entire community, so everyone could participate. The time is now!

This call gives us an opportunity to unite in the Father’s heart, bring His sound TOGETHER along with all the breakthrough we carry for everyone who internally contributes to a Blueprint Prayer Focus.

Our first community wide call was on April 2nd to cover the internal creation process of the DCM Blueprint Prayer Focus. If you were unable to join us, the CPI (Crafted Prayer of Impact) is posted on Facebook for you to be praying on your own at home.

Our next opportunity for a community wide prayer call is on May 14th to cover the internal process of the TBS Blueprint Prayer Focus.

Lastly, we have a group on the Intel Team that creates these Crafted Prayers of Impact and is dedicated to praying them throughout the duration of a Blueprint Prayer Focus.

If you want to join in, there is no training needed, just a heart for intercession and a love to grow in crafting Prayers of Impact.

If you would like to join the Intel Intercession Group, email twc.intel@gmail.com and put “Intel Intercession Group” in the subject line.

WARRIOR SUPPORT/VIDEO HELPS

Have you wondered how to find a call recording on Facebook? Or maybe how to find TWC events on your phone?

We've created videos that walk you through some of the most pressing technical and technology questions you may have in an easy to follow, step by step process. In these videos, you will find many different tips. Each one helps you troubleshoot and discover a way to overcome technical obstacles that sometimes come our way.

Most of these videos are under 3 minutes long. They have slides so you can pause the video and jot down some notes for your reference later. Of course, the videos are not going anywhere soon, so you have plenty of time to pop in and check them out a little at a time. Before long, you will be proficient and tech savvy!

Go to the webpage, twclass.org and log in. Paste this URL in your browser:

or
Log into twclass.org
Check out the website under the Resources tab. Scroll down to Video/Quick Tips and Open the Warrior Helps page.

We will continue to add new Warriortech videos to help you along the way!

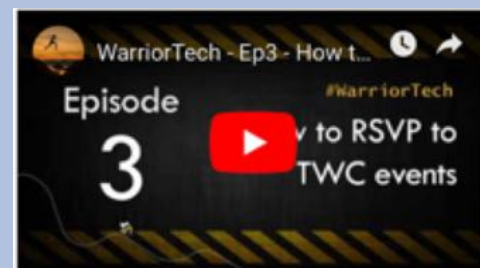

On that note: if you have any questions or video ideas, send an email to twclass.member@gmail.com and place "Warriortech" in the subject line. Your questions will be answered and you may see them featured in a future video!

From Practice to Purpose

by Kern Pegg
TWC Engagement Coach

Gardens are not made by singing ‘Oh, how beautiful,’ and sitting in the shade.” ~Rudyard Kipling

I love The Warrior Class and the army/family of Kingdom people that God has placed me in for safe practicing. We are both a company of warriors training in the ways of Kingdom combat, and also His treasured, precious, beautiful, family of brides, His Beloved. I have been a part of this community for nearly a decade, and have enjoyed years of safe, intentional practice, yet things are changing.

Many of us felt it when our “launch word” was released in Anaheim 2017. Stronger still have been the indications and whispers from heaven since Christmas ebb and into the New Year.

We are getting closer to that point where practice becomes purpose. Where our focus, training, and intentionality are raised to a higher place.

Where God’s whisper of: “wait and see what I have planned” begins to feel more like: “see what I am about to do.”

For me, this year feels like God is taking me through regionals, or giving a nod to my grandfather-trained baseball brain, the Division Series playoffs. Is practice ending? Of course not! Even baseball professionals about to play in the final games of the World Series still practice, perhaps even harder than they have all year!

Yet, practice changes, and begins to be honed towards purpose. Instead of just practicing “at home” (i.e. in The Warrior Class), some of us are finding ourselves practicing Kingdom into greater and deeper parts of our lives outside TWC. Just like coastal ball clubs fly themselves into the mountains to train at higher altitude in places like Colorado, Wyoming, and Utah, so too many of us are finding ourselves practicing Kingdom on friends, colleagues, and even strangers!

Billy Graham used to talk about the “Three Invitations of Christ”: we are invited into His rest (Matt 11:28); we are invited into discipleship (Mark 1:17, John 15:8); and we are invited to live in the realm of God (John 15:4, Psalm 91:1).

“He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.” (Ps 91:1)

We are in all of that now, Warriors. We are seeing the increase of intentionality from Heaven, where the balance tilts from just pure training and practice into a place of intentional purpose paired with intentional practicing. Where we are not just practicing within the confines of The Warrior Class, but being invited by God to take a risk and practice out in the world.

Talk about limitless possibilities, eh? Whoa, Canada slip.

Warriors, enjoy your practice. Seek opportunities to hone your practice in all He is doing and sharing with you about how He sees you.

Practice with honor. Practice with patience. Practice with wisdom. Practice with love.

In all He invites you to pursue in bringing Heaven to Earth, practice knowing He has a purpose, and His heart of love is focused on you.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Andrew Carter

About Me:

I have lived and worked in Oxfordshire, England for over 43 years. I am a not yet retired Accountant, and I have run my own business since 1981. The picture you see is of my wife Pauline and myself enjoying a Caribbean Cruise in February this year, and the picture is taken from the ship docked in Basseterre, St Kitts and Nevis. We have four children and five grandchildren between us. Like most people my life has had its ups and downs. A high point was being part of a ministry team in Kenya in 1995 during the time of the "Toronto blessing". A low point was in 2000 when much of my life as I knew it then fell apart, and (probably unknown to Graham) his two spring conferences in Southampton, England in 2001 and 2002 were a major factor in pointing me in a new direction in God's Kingdom.

What part of God's nature am I discovering?

This has to be God's fatherhood at this time. Finding security, not in circumstances or activities, but in His never-failing love, His presence in our lives and His care and protection. This gives me confidence to step out into the unknown, knowing that this is part of the process of maturing us as His sons and daughters. We are learning to trust Him, but Papa wants to be able to trust us as well, so that we can grow up and play our full part in His family business.

In what ways are your thoughts and language being upgraded in TWC?

The biggest change for me so far is summarized in Ephesians 2:6 " God raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms". It's been a transforming concept - we magnify the Lord, and the problem becomes small, even irrelevant. I have been practicing that in my prayers and in my approach to problems. The change is amazing - I can now rest in my heavenly Father's arms even when the storms are raging around. When you have Jesus in your boat the storm fades away!

A few identity statements:

- I am a seasoned mountain walker, and I am becoming someone who inhabits the high places.
- I am an influencer for the Kingdom of God, and I am becoming an atmosphere shifter.
- I am a purposeful adventurer, and I am becoming a ground breaker in enemy territory.
- I am a joyful giver, and I am becoming an envoy for the Kingdom of God in the business world.
- I am a dearly loved son of the Father, and I am becoming a caring person sharing God's love with others.
- I am a lover of God's Word, and I am becoming a miner of its many treasures.
