Who We Are

Passion Well Spent

By Sharon Rudolph
Director of Member Development

How is it that this season of spring opens up such beauty, revealing God's glory on earth, and can also bring devastation through storms? This transition on earth that includes beauty and new life, also includes wind, rain, and expressions of power that can feel scary.

Being in Christ we have heavenly power not to be mere humans (1Corinthians 3:3), but live with unveiled face so that the exposure to glory does not overwhelm us; even as negatives try to come in and prevent God's outcome. This glory changes us to be more like Him. (2 Corinthians 3:18) We have an earthly example but it is superseded by the Kingdom one we have In Christ!

Clouds and rain, thunder and lightning, the dark of night – all these storms stir up feelings of insecurity and fear. What is coming at me? What might possibly happen for which I am not ready? Then I am reminded that I am not alone. As I sit in the closet waiting for the siren to stop, I remember I am not alone. Now Peace comes. Now Truth overrides instinct and I can be who I am, not what I was. The first is superseded by the second.

The earthly reality of the trauma caused by natural disasters, or abuse, is superseded by the Kingdom reality of what Christ brings to me so that I overcome.

“Once we carried the likeness of the man of dust, but now let us carry the likeness of the Man of heaven.” (1 Corinthians 15:49)

First we receive the ultimate rescue from being mere humans to being children of God, adopted back into the family. Second, we have the promise of transformation from glory to glory.

Personal devotional time with God provides this exposure to glory. Watching a sunset, Georgia flowers in Spring, a newborn baby, a symphony, a sonnet, a good story, all are expressions of the Glory of God that transform me if I let them.

In this year, 2019, I have had a new realization of how my Passion for this process of Glory to Glory compels me to rest and receive the Kingdom reality of the Glory of God.

With each new stage of glory, I am closer to the One Who loves me best. More intimacy, more oneness. Nothing is better.

And when challenged by others that I am too passionate about this passion, I grab Holy Spirit's hand and run on anyway because nothing compares to knowing God! (Philippians 3:7-14)

I have found training in TWC provides, and accelerates, this exposure to glory being fertilizer to my soil so the seed planted produces the beauty God intended. God planted the seed. TWC does some fertilizing. Holy Spirit makes sure there is the right amount of Water. Ultimately, God produces the glory to glory fruit, resulting in deeper intimacy; transformation so that even before I hear a siren, or the wind, or the weather report, I am in the place of peace and rest with my God.

Instinct overridden by Kingdom truth – a new normal. Passion well spent.

For you TWC members – What is your Passion and how is it spent? Mine is not the only one of value, it is simply mine and God uses TWC to add fuel to it. How does TWC add fuel to your passion? What is the hoped for outcome? How has God developed this passion within you and how is He stoking your fire in your current circumstances? What evidence of transformation (a new normal) is He bringing forth in this glory ?

How is God stoking your fire in your current circumstances?

What is your Passion and how is it spent?

What evidence of transformation (a new normal) is He bringing forth in this glory?

How does your passion for transformation move you from glory to glory?

What is the training in TWC fertilizing in you?

What do you feel is on the map from the Passion's Promise article?

How has your time in TWC helped you discover more about the Love of the Father?

Share some of the ways the Lord revealed Himself to you? (what images, feelings, scriptures, etc.)

Have you ever played with Papa (Father God)?

Training Days follow up:

If you would be willing to briefly share what you experienced or saw (your sword, visual, etc.) in The Journey Begins Allegory, please send it to twc.memberservices@gmail.com by no later than May 20th.

We hope to add your piece to the final publication.

Passion's Promise

As I am praying about this article, I am seeing a vision of us (IWC) standing at the threshold of a great expanse. This is a wide open territory that stretches out with a bright blue sky above it. It is a plateau, which means we are standing in a high place. Even though I can see the sky and a bit of the territory before us, my attention is diverted as the Lord steps up before us and begins to speak.

I heard Him say this to us, "It's passion that brought you here. Before exploring what is ahead, I want to talk to you about passion.

Passion is a fuel that propels My people into their promises.

Though My promises are yes and amen, it is the passion you carry that brings you to the threshold of what is to come.

I Am not a respecter of persons and my plans and purposes will come to pass. What draws you into those promises is the passionate heart you carry. It's like a magnet that accelerates you into the next season and pulls the next season into your today.

I have always had a plan and a purpose for The Warrior Class. You have a destiny I have positioned you to receive. I have held you in My hands and surrounded you with them, for I am your protector and defender. I am your hedge of protection. My passion for you pours out into your receptive hearts. Your passion for Me draws Me to you. It is an interchange that brings delight to My heart.

I will cover you and am a fierce protector of those I love. You will break into new ground. You will steward what I give you now and carry it into the next land.

[He hands over something roundish. It's wrapped in a tan leather like blanket and is not yet revealed]

Your hunger for the deeper things of My heart compels Me to open the deeper wells for you. I Am digging the wells needed for you to draw from and water the land. You will pour it out on the crops and fruit you will plant on your journey. These wells will never run dry.

Your passion opens the doors and windows of heaven. It draws out My provision. As I pour it out over you, you will uncover even more of My plans. Remain in Me. Abide in Me. I Am revealing more of what is "monumental" about this time and the "momentum" I have for you.

You stand at the precipice of My next move. I have given you things to steward and called you to bring much more than you may realize in this time.

Do not forget My promises to you. Remember what I have shared and what I am releasing even now.

It is a glimpse of the map needed for your next phase of growth. It will add to what you already hold and will combine together to create a clearer picture of what it is to become The Warrior Class."

The Father's Heart

by Wendy Jitta

When I was thirteen, I accepted Jesus into my heart. He became my best friend, my everything. I knew that the Father was in Heaven and He loved me; and the Holy Spirit was this great power surrounding me, helping me.

I never realized that I did not have a deep, intimate relationship with them until I joined TWC! Level 1 (Foundations 3-6) opened up a whole new adventure for me and I began discovering the nature of God.

About two years ago, I had a vision where I saw Jesus coming, taking my hand and carrying me into the Throne Room where the Father was seated. When I glimpsed the Father, I couldn't look at Him because I felt so unworthy, guilty and ashamed! I never knew that this is how I would feel in the Father's presence.

I didn't know what to do with all those feelings. About a week later, I had the same vision where Jesus took my hand and carried me into the Throne Room. This time, I was able to look at the Father, and the love I experienced radiating out of Him was amazing!

After that, I was running and jumping on Papa's lap. He would hug me and make me feel so safe and loved. This began a whole new, intimate relationship with the Father for me.

Once, He was like this huge lion and I was tucked into His front paws. Something had upset me and I was venting to Him. He seemed unconcerned and just kept licking the top of my head with His huge tongue!

I realized that He is God and He can handle all my problems! I felt His peace washing over me. I discovered that Papa is also playful, I saw us jumping on pogo sticks and He kept saying, "Boink, boink, boink!" He's so much fun.

I thank TWC for helping me discover the love of the Father. Papa recently told me something so precious, He said that my heart and His heart beat together as one, that our hearts beat together in perfect synchrony.

*“My heart and His heart beat together
as one.”*

Website Feature of the Month

Training at Your Fingertips

More training at your fingertips: We shared about the support videos we have posted on our website in our last Frontline. Now we have another new feature for you. We have created a page that highlights some of our most recent training calls.

One of the challenges we have had is how to find calls once they have been posted on Facebook. It's not always easy to scroll through the page to find a posted call. Sometimes even using the search tab on the right (for computers) is challenged to locate the exact call you are trying to find.

We began to think about how to help you. We had an aha! and came up with a plan to help you find the calls! We can post them on the website!

The Recorded Call Library:
<http://www.twclass.org/recorded-call-library>

The calls are posted here in an easy to find format. You can see the categories as you scroll down the page.

They are as follows:

- ✓ 3-Words 3-Years
- ✓ General Training Calls
- ✓ Foundations Stages 1 & 2
- ✓ Foundations Stages 3 – 6
- ✓ Engagement Calls
- ✓ Champions: Manifesting Your Spirit

The first featured set of calls are our 3 Words, 3 Years calls. They each held some wonderful conversations.

Each call held a wealth of prophetic insight, where not only were the three words shared, but also the information God put on each person's heart about what those words meant and how they were defined. We will continue to unpack those words, their meanings and what God wants to impart for us over the next three year span of time.

We will continue to add more categories, such as for our advanced training modules, as the new TWC training year starts in July. Continue to go back to the page and check it out. More calls are being added all the time.

Intel Process CPI for TBS

By Karleigh Wood, Director of Intel

“This call gives us an opportunity to unite in the Father’s heart, bring His sound together along with all the Break-through we carry...”

Thank you that we have rivers of living water which flow out of our innermost being. We rejoice in the revelation that these rivers bring as we partner with Holy Spirit.

We declare these rivers release your perfect will in our lives. We declare the light of Jesus dispersing spiritual darkness and paving a way for revelation straight from the heart of the Father.

You delight in our identities – each so precious and unique - representing a piece of Your heart.

As we revel in Your delight, we come into deeper alignment with these identities leading to a confident expectation which overcomes all uncertainty and timidity.

We are so filled up with empowering grace that it overflows throughout this prayer focus and beyond.

We rejoice that a clear path for the river to flow results in fresh revelation, boldness, clarity, and powerful impact. The clarity brings a faith to release what Father has available.

We ask all of this for the team involved in the TBS Blueprint prayer focus in Jesus mighty name.

TWC Training

Fighting performance mindsets: Grace Reminder!

One grace we discovered early on in TWC is about the time we spend focused on TWC and our self-paced training. Our lives have ebbs and flows. We know that some seasons are more packed than others.

Summer is coming and, especially for those who have kids or grandkids at home, the time to focus on training in TWC gets a bit more squeezed.

Many of us have experienced self-condemnation for not “doing” the training in those seasons. But, JOY!!!

This is its own learning opportunity! Spoiler....Condemnation is NOT from God! It's another type of that sneaky performance thinking working its way back into your life.

We get it. Your training process is going to have ebbs and flows. Truthfully, it's not realistic -- in a community that has the potential for long term, ongoing connection to our tribe -- to expect that every season of your life will allow you the same amount of time for your training.

Now, the enemy likes to come in and give you a guilt trip. His favorite thing is to make you feel you need to stop doing something that is giving you life just because you are a bit more busy.

Remember the grace...consider how much time you have to devote to your training?

50% of your time? 10%, 5%?

Just consider the time you do have available and devote 100% of your 1, 5 10 %, etc. to it.

What if you are in a season where you have no time to devote to the training? No worries. It's a season. And seasons change. This means you have the chance to pick it back up once your season shifts.

Some warriors have discovered this is a great time to bring the self-paced training into their quiet times.

Some set it aside and pick it back up in a couple of months, but then spend those summer months practicing what they have learned and making sure the transition they have already experienced becomes a part of their lifestyle. The important thing is that you are intentional about it.

Remember The Warrior Class is much more than self-paced training modules alone. It's a community, a tribe.

TWC is a place of encouragement, support, joy, intercession/intel, excitement and passion for God. A group of like-minded people, passionately pursuing God and maturing into the grown up sons and daughters God desires us to become.

We want to see you launch, rise and soar!

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Rebecah Beauchamp

I am currently exploring God as Bridegroom King. I love hearing His voice as tender encourager and seeing His majesty as King of Heaven.

I am pursuing a deeper understanding of the balance of His love and judgement. I'm also fascinated with how all decisions flow through His love – especially the ones that offend the mind.

As I'm experiencing Him in this way, He is removing misperceptions I've had of His nature or religious paradigms that He never intended.

I'm also experiencing an expansion of the infinite nature of God. It is how He is revealing Himself as my Adventure Guide.

What I thought I once understood has been completely replaced by unending expansion in all directions. This requires my absolute trust that He will not lead me into anything that would harm me or distract me from devotion.

I am getting lost all over again in the depth, breadth and fullness of His wisdom and the realms of His creation. At times, I feel lost in the enormity and majesty of Him and I long for the intimacy of our previous encounters.

It is at those times, that He visits me in the secret place and reminds me that He is always 'Daddy' first and all other explorations are birthed in that intimacy.

As I have entered this upgrade, there are moments where my steps don't seem certain and I fight to find balance. Then He reminds me, He has given me hind's feet in high places and He will never let me fall.

Being a part of TWC has given me language and a framework to process what I'm experiencing. The study materials and testimonies of those who have travelled this way before me, allow me to access deeper places of trust.

Knowing I'm not off-course or alone in my journey is an additional assurance to combat the 'rational' mind that questions if the things I'm experiencing are real or imagined.

I love the Warrior Declarations and speak these over myself to remind me of who I am and who I am becoming.

God is expanding my definitions of who He is and who He has created me to be.

Identity Statements:

- I am His artist with a paintbrush of FIRE to birth His visions and create portals for people to step into encounter with Him.
- I am pregnant with FREEDOM to release sons and daughters who press into connection and mature into those where the Lord rests His headship.
- I am becoming a sharpshooter with words of LIFE that hit the bullseye and free people to live from their spirit without limits.
- I am becoming a traveller between realms who brings the sweet honey of heaven

Blog Writer Invitation

Consider this your invitation to step into a wonderful way to share about what God is doing in your life.

If you are interested in writing a blog no experience necessary, here's your chance.

Ideas for what you might cover:

- How has your relationship with God deepened in your time in TWC?
- How is God transforming your heart, the way you see things or your words?
- What is your recent upgrade (next step in spiritual maturity) and what has this upgrade meant to you?
- How has your intercession shifted as you have journeyed further into TWC?

For more information or if you have a completed blog, send your email to twc.memberservices@gmail.com
