A Life Connected

By Christine Casten
Executive Director of TWC

I find it hard to imagine a life without connection. God created us to be connected to Him. He also created us to connect with each other. I've always believed that our greatest power and breakthrough is produced when we are part of a unified group, connected as God has designed us to be.

Think about it, unity is powerful. It threatens the powers of darkness. It is one reason why the enemy's main strategy to bring strife and division.

A unified body is an overcoming, culture shifting, radical force for positive change.

I believe our Warrior Tribe was birthed from God's heart with these things in mind. We were created to train in greater connection and relationship with Him. We seek to abide in His heart and see life through His eyes. This is how we will bring heaven to earth. Divine connection is the glue that unifies TWC in One Heart and One Mind – His.

Let's be clear about our passion for unified connectedness in TWC. It's a myth that we all have to be carbon copies of each other. In reality God created us with a myriad of wirings. Each one of us sees things uniquely.

In bringing together all our special perspectives and experiences, we create a beautiful kaleidoscope of creative expression and innovation. It is a brilliant strategy to help us re-imagine what Kingdom life looks like on earth, as we also maintain a close connection with God. This is how we can link arms and help each other walk out this amazing Warrior life.

What great joy is found in this beautiful intertwining of our connection with each other and with God? What creative genius can we discover when connecting with each other, while abiding in our Creator?

As joy and creative process merge together, a powerful hope comes to life. Discouragements give way to "what ifs?" Defeat itself is defeated and we soar into limitless possibilities.

Resilience, resolve, passion, belonging, determination... our Warrior nature rises.

We see greater value in each other. We find a place where our voice adds to the symphony of voices rising in our Warrior Community.

In connecting with God, we learn to prefer one another. In connecting with each other, through the Ports of Call Warrior Buddy groups, I believe we will discover amazing ways to help each other rise higher. As we each bring our wiring, training, maturing, understanding, and heaven-to-earth connection with God, we will grow and gain strength together.

Can you imagine the force of the entire Warrior Class embracing and demonstrating A Life Connected? I can't wait!

The Courage of True Belonging

Jesus lived such a miraculous example for us. He is our role model of an individual demonstrating an understanding of Who He is, the work before Him, and the cost of that work, while maintaining a constant connection with Father God and Holy Spirit. He brought His Kingdom-connection to His family, disciples, friends, and acquaintances. While He enjoyed social events and valued the families of His friends, He was never manipulated by anyone for the sake of family or friendship.

His connected life required great courage. Jewish culture at the time was totally focused on fitting in to the synagogue community and calling this conformity “belonging.” The greatest fear of so many of Jesus’ fellow Israelites was being cast out of this synagogue acceptance.

Jesus’ life stood in the face of that false version of belonging every day because He knew and experienced true belonging with Father and Holy Spirit at all times. He was never sucked into counterfeit “fitting in” connections in the place of real belonging.

In Christ we have the possibility of true belonging and connectedness with other humans.

Being the individuals God created us to be and connecting to others in ways that promote Kingdom identities for all, is living the life Jesus modeled.

By courageously embracing Kingdom identity, we allow others to truly know us and we open space for real belonging. As other people step into the space we opened, we will begin to truly know them as who God created them to be. We get to partner with God and see and know others the way God sees them. This authentic way of belonging is based upon Kingdom life, not what is seen in the natural.

True belonging requires “courageous being.”

Courageous being develops character that maintains healthy boundaries, keeps one’s word, maintains confidences, practices values, believes the best, and doesn’t judge others. What aspects of “courageous being” would you like to see God develop within you?

Warriors are in training to learn to live from our identities, loving from Father God’s heart, and standing as who we truly are. Jesus did not judge. Jesus did not hold on to a wrong suffered. Jesus called people up to who they were in heaven. Our possibilities are the same.

How is Jesus asking you to follow His example in your connections to others?

Living in Connection

Linda Smallbones

What would it take for you to know that you know that you are never 'left out' in God's heart?

Have you ever felt left out? There are a number of reasons the world may exclude us either directly or indirectly due to our age, race, social class, gender or education level... you name it! When we are left out, we can feel separated and disconnected and we may withdraw, rather than seeking the connection we actually need, both with God and others.

God promises that we are never left out. "Who then could ever separate us from the endless love of God's Anointed One? Absolutely no one! For nothing in the universe has the power to diminish his love towards us. Troubles, pressures, and problems are unable to come between us and heaven's love. What about persecutions, deprivations, dangers, and death threats? No, for they are impotent to hinder omnipotent love." Romans 8:35 (The Passion Translation).

In TWC we focus on two levels of connection. The first level is our individual connection with the Lord, in which we are learning to know that we are loved, even when we don't feel it. The second level of connection is with our fellow Warriors. When we live in intimate connection with the Father, connections with others start to grow and flourish. But this still involves us taking some initiative and practicing intentionality.

Here is my invitation to you. If you're feeling disconnected or 'left out' in TWC, have a conversation with your Papa. And then, take a step towards connection. Building relationships in a virtual community takes a steady progression of interactions and participation over time. Your showing up on training calls and participating in them matters. Your Facebook interactions on the Warrior Class page matter. Taking time to encourage a fellow Warrior matters.

What are you willing to invest so that you see connection growing? How does He wish you to be a conduit of connection for your fellow Warriors?

Nothing can separate you from His love. You matter.

Encourage..
Connect..

*You are
God's Heart.*

Look for these questions on Facebook. They come from our Frontline articles and are here to generate more conversation with our TWC Tribe. As you read Frontline, look at these questions and get ready to answer them over the next few weeks!

How are you practicing “courageous being?”

What is your instead for the enemy’s lie that you are alone, isolated and disconnected?

What does a “Life Connected” mean to you?

What aspect of our Warrior Nature do you value most?

What is God sharing with you about your personal Port of Call word?

What persona is God revealing through your Port of Call word?

How does a life connected to God generate creativity and genius?

Spoiler Alert: We will continue to add more upgrades to the website over the next few months and it will become an even more vital part of our TWC community.

Fulfilling Wheels Within Wheels Word and Warrior Buddy Groups

If you recall the Wheels Within Wheels prophetic word released over TWC in Training Days (Anaheim 2016 – look for post on FB from Christine Casten) you can see that these Warrior Buddy groups are the embodiment of the Wheels. The Ports of Call words (Training Days 2019, Training Journal 18) will be the hub for those wheels. And God is the axel around which the wheels spin.

As Natalie prophetically pioneers and maps out some of the things we are envisioning for the Ports of Call Buddy groups,* we thought we'd share her insights with you. Enjoy what she shares and allow it to spark your own conversations with God as we prepare for these groups to begin meeting towards the end of September.

*If you have not yet signed up for a Warrior Buddy Port of Call group, contact twc.memberservices@gmail.com. In your email, please include the Port of Call word the Lord has highlighted to you for this season, if you have one.

Treasure Hunting Collecting and Connecting Keys of Identity Natalie Timmerman

Riding the wave of Momentum training days, to me has meant being joyfully intentional about my present process and circumstances. Just before training days, I had stepped into one of the toughest seasons of my life. Through circumstances beyond my control, my world turned upside down, and I moved myself and my 4 children away from everything we knew.

Because of my training in TWC, I knew I needed a map for the days ahead. So I collected the dots, the prophetic words, pictures and drawings from the creative activation and other personal exchanges between the Lord and I.

I meditated on key scriptures, soaked in the astonishment of the connections I made and conversations I had. I played recordings from the prophetic picture activation. I was blessed to have someone sing a song over me, which very much soothed my soul in the darkest night.

As always, I followed my Lord's leading- when to move, when to be still, when to write and when to just sit and enjoy the warmth of the day. Holy Spirit connected it all. He ebbed and flowed with me to produce a new crafted prayer from all the pieces I collected. I would often re-read the prophetic word (Port of Call word) and verse and highlight or write down phrases that stood out. Several times it had been just the piece of provision I needed to get through the next storm.

Then came the night of writing. Even editing becomes a beautiful time spent with Jesus. There's a delightful exchange and series of upgrades usually in my process. It flowed together and finally emerged as a crafted identity prayer.

I shared with some TWC buddies, one of whom asked for clarification on one of the points, which led to an "x" marks the spot moment. I knew I had been needing some new ID statements which I had been collecting pieces for as well.

All my friend said to me was,

"I think there's more in that for you."

It sparked more exploring, conversations with Holy Spirit and divine exchanges. Soon after the TWC wide call, my spirit stirred once again and my new ID statements flew out of that "x" marks the spot.

The synergy we have as a collective, is the most mysterious and amazing thing I've experienced. TWC is not just people in training on a common journey. God is up to something dazzling and beautiful indeed.

I am seeing first-hand how this tribe, this army family, is becoming a unified, flowing, fluid wave of stunning glory. We reflect His nature to each other with such fascinating brilliance, one cannot help but be elevated to new heights and enabled to love more fiercely than ever, revealing our collective beauty as His bride.

We get to be clothed in rainbows of living color as our faith becomes a wraparound shield of Hope to one another. As we walk through shadows and valleys of death together, we can remember even darkness is light to our God.

We walk in true humility holding each other accountable to become the person God sees and to joyfully and intentionally walk toward our true selves.

My Presence Abider Crafted Prayer

Thank you, Lord, for my wonderful share, my inheritance as a saint of light.

As You till the ground of my heart, the light of Your majestic nature is revealed.

As I abide in daily expectation of Your marvelous ways, my heart opens to the beauty of Your light in me.

This light is magnified and increases as You teach and train me to catch, carry and release the full measure of Your presence.

I remain in a place of humility to sustain a powerful, unstoppable love that nothing can defeat.

The brightness of Your love in me is a fortified city of light that can be seen in the darkest night, a lighthouse that expands to the ends of the earth.

By day and night, You increase my light and teach me well to walk in maturity, always remembering the instructions You place deep inside my mind.

I dwell in the place of Your heart in the courtship of our love, a refining fire of endless new beginnings.

You fill my garden with ALL joy, peace and confidence, providing tender places to plant and produce harvests that feed nations.

We align and ignite irresistible engagements of intimacy that release rivers of revelation knowledge.

Wherever I am, You impart who You are, nourishing humanity and sowing seeds of humility.

Thank You that You are closer than a brother and always by my side.

In Jesus' name,
Amen

ID Statements

I am a fortified city of light, forever glorifying my Father as I reflect His nature.

I am a glory harvester. I catch, carry and release the music of my Fathers heart, planting seeds of humility and grace.

I am a saint of light, glowing as the beloved bride of Christ, spotless, blameless, pure hearted and sure-footed.

I am a modern-day scribe, walking by faith and writing from the blissful brook of bliss, releasing rivers of revelation and life.

I am a cageless bird, singing songs of deliverance and restoration. My light and sound send shockwaves of freedom into the earth and sky.

I am a diamond in the dust moving and dancing with the wind of the Spirit and the beat of life.

I am a dream fulfiller, seizing every opportunity to experience the fullness and abundance of God's majestic sovereignty.

I am a treasure hunter with the eyes of Jesus, mining gold in people to reveal the facet of the bride they are.

I am Joshua, a champion king, creatively leading my people into lands of promise, provision and manifest destiny.

Daniela Parkinson

About you – My name is Daniela Parkinson. I am an Italian/Mexican from Minnesota, but my newlywed husband and I are currently residing in the island of Jamaica for a short season.

I am in my early 20's and living out of the passionate love that God radically poured into me when I was 14 years old. My story of salvation is personified in Jesus' encounter with the adulteress in John 8. He encountered me with pure, liquid love at a time in my life where all I could give Him were dirty rags and accusations.

I was truly living in darkness but, in that day, I experienced the light and love I had been searching even in the midst of all my sin. I truly have never recovered from that encounter! It has been a journey beyond belief to watch Him progressively and lovingly upgrade, transform, and renew His image in me.

One of my favorite chapters in my life is when God presented TWC to me when I was 19 years old. I found the joy and acceleration of a company of people who truly lived out of the culture of Kingdom intentionality. To all who I have had the honor of speaking to in calls and conferences, I just want to say thank you for believing in who God says that I am and always encouraging me to go higher and deeper in Him!

What part of God's nature are you discovering? I am currently exploring who God wants to be for me as the One who "goes ahead of me to prepare the way." (Psalm 139:5) I am learning to upgrade my trust in ridiculous moments where God wants me to know that He REALLY does provide in difficult moments--such as when I got stranded in the hustling, bustling city of Kingston a day before my wedding, or when He fully paid for the wedding a week before the date through family members who had initially threatened not even to attend! He truly never fails nor forsakes.

In what ways are your thoughts and language being upgraded in TWC? In this year, I am upgrading thoughts of insecurity regarding the future into powerful confidence as I recognize that God's presence in my present guarantees my victory. I am choosing to practice a language of trust and to be more present/future as I stand in His promises.

Share some of your Identity Statements: I AM AND AM BECOMING...

I am now, and am becoming, more fully God's beloved daughter. I am grounded in the joy of His heart, receiving the fullness of His Kingdom treasures from a heart of rest and trust in His nature.

I am an Abraham in heart, standing faithful through time and honoring God's promises over my circumstances, inadequacies, and failures.

I am a revivalist, bringing forth people to a place of intimacy with the Godhead.

I am entrusted with God's power because my heart is continually governed by His love first.

How are you growing in Becoming the Beloved....

I am growing in Becoming the Beloved by learning how to glory in God's Fatherhood over me.

I am upgrading my trust by being more aware that His presence is always present in every circumstance. As I walk with Him, He hedges me from before and behind in His love. In my weakness, He assures me that He is enough as He supplies me with the strength and courage necessary to stand my ground.

Look what's coming.....

We are excited to announce ~ We are doing a Blueprint for TWC and it will be released at the beginning of 2020. Woo-hoo!

Everyone in our community has the opportunity to seek God's heart and sow into it. We will also integrate your 3 words the Lord brought forth from each one of you in the spring.

It will be sent out on September 16th with a submission date on or before October 4th. In the email, you will also find additional opportunities related to the TWC 2020 Blueprint for next year. Be on the lookout!

Social Media: See the blue bar on the next page for connection information!!!
