Who We Are

Our Intercession Lifestyle

By Christine Casten - Executive Director of TWC

We are in a new place as Warriors. We have transitioned from who we “hope to be” into who we are as we actively live our Kingdom lifestyle. Our identity, permission, commission, connection and intercession rise from our intimacy with the Lord. Our intercession opens us up to see His majesty in ways we’ve never-before experienced.

What greater joy could we have than to agree with what Jesus and Holy Spirit are praying? In this place of partnership, we find the answer to the questions so many have asked...What is my purpose and What should I do?

In our journey with God, we have come to realize that our purpose is to know Him with all the passion of our identity. The answer to what we “should do” simply comes out of Whose we are. It’s a natural step from identity and intimacy into action and, after removing all performance expectations, as warriors we step into the ease of life with Him. This doesn’t mean life is always easy, but, through our intimate connection with our God, we experience His yoke as easy and His burden as light.

We are discovering that purpose and action are tied together in an ongoing spiral of deepening intimacy with the Lover of our souls. Worship becomes the foundation for intercession. Hearing God—His strategies, Intel, and breakthrough— comes from this relational exchange of love. Worship is both a pouring out and pouring in from us to God and from God to us. It establishes us in a place of rest, healing, refreshing and restoration and we learn that we can only know pure love by receiving love from Him.

What joy it is to develop a lifestyle of worshipful intercession!

Bound tightly to Him, we learn His heart and mind and embrace it as our own. It is a process that becomes a lifestyle where we pray without ceasing - in continuous conversation with God. This takes time to develop and grow. Along the way, we learn to stay in alignment with Him and to quickly realign with Him when life distracts us. Maturing in Christ truly is an ongoing journey of moving closer, going deeper and becoming more like the One we know and love.

As you think about (or meditate on) the values and principles our Tribe is grounded in, consider how these foundations have shaped our culture in TWC. We train in them to establish them firmly in us. They become our DNA as we walk closely with God and each other. And they empower us to become the Warriors God has called us to be.

We are now commissioned to live a Warrior lifestyle of love and unbroken communication with our Lord. We pray without ceasing and without striving to sustain this amazing connection. This is our Kingdom DNA: the Inheritance Mindset that anchors this rising class of Warriors (that's us!) to The Warrior Commission.

OUR INTERCESSION LIFESTYLE

VALUE: INTERCESSION THAT CREATES AN ATMOSPHERE OF INTIMACY AND MAJESTY WHERE THE PERMISSIONS AND PROVISIONS OF HEAVEN COME TO EARTH.

Principle: In intimate relationship with God, we discover what Jesus and the Spirit are praying and we agree with them in intercession.

Action Plan:

- We worship as the foundation of our intercession and the catalyst for revelation and sensitivity to the voice of God.
- We listen for God's heart, gather prophetic intelligence and develop common points of prayer to create our assignment prayers
- We follow through to achieve our breakthroughs.

VALUE: DECLARATION AND THANKSGIVING ARE THE FOUNDATION OF OUR PRAYERS

Principle: We do not pray as a widow who begs, but as the Beloved bride of God.

Action Plan:

- Our intercession, vision and plans are designed and budgeted for abundance, not measure.
- We pray, from Heaven to Earth, with God, not to Him or at Him.
- We respond from His heart rather than in reaction to the behaviors or words of others.

VALUE: LIFESTYLE OF REST AND PEACE

Principle: Rest is our greatest weapon and we pray possibilities.

Action Plan:

- o We pray with joy, quietly confident and passionately focused on our promises.
- o We express our intercession in positives. We view challenges as opportunities and look for limitless possibilities in, and through, the nature of God.
- o We see God's heart in every circumstance and in every person. Our responses reflect what we see.

Heartbeat Intercession

We are on a journey to explore rest and peace. On that path, our connection with the heart of God is wide open. His plans, agendas, hopes, and dreams flow freely to us. What joy it is to dream with God! We find ourselves in a place of such freedom that possibilities are limitless and joy overflows. Don't you desire to live that dream out loud every day?

On this path of rest, dreams, and freedom, we carry God's goodness with us. We daily walk in a mutual trust relationship with Father God. He trusts us and we trust Him. We carry, and reflect, His heart to all we meet. It is out of that trust, that our commission to be Warrior Ambassadors of God's love is born. Our hearts beat in agreement with His heart of love for ourselves and the people around us and we move into a lifestyle of intercession.

Our "heartbeat intercession" creates space for an intimacy and majesty that reverberates into thanksgiving, worship, and praise.

Intercession becomes a lifestyle of continuous partnership with God as we labor together to bring His Kingdom to earth.

From the Now and Beyond 2020 Blueprint: "Our invitation/calling is weighty and what He is providing through our prayers is extraordinary. Living from our spiritual position on a high Kingdom plane, we are releasing and depositing what we've been shown into the world." As Warriors we choose to embrace the rest and peace Jesus bought for us at the Cross and this opens our eyes to see what God wants us to see and invites us to dream with Him and then to release that dream into the world.

What dream have you been shown that is now yours to release? How will you align with that dream to create heartbeat intercession? What intimacy and majesty is arising out of your rest and peace?

Looking Forward to New Adventures – Specialty Training In TWC

While the external world around us is experiencing much angst and uncertainty, we have the certainty of Jesus. He has overcome the world! Now is a great time to intercede for yourself and to seek what Jesus is praying for you to become and to experience in the upcoming TWC training year beginning July 6th, 2020.

TWC will be facilitating several Specialty Trainings as well as a Coaches/Leadership Training. Let's look at some options for your future.

Click on the Training Tab, under Specialty Training, to find information on these transformation opportunities. You may enroll in any of them once you have completed Foundations Stages 1-6 or Level 1.

The Intel Development Training track is listed first and begins in September each year. TWC's unique style of prophetic Intel gathering and Impact prayer creation is explored and practiced in this 6-week training.

Champions Training is next, and an extensive description is provided for your review and consideration. This training starts on July 11, 2020 and includes Four Focuses that finish in April and May 2021.

Leadership Development Training (LDT) is third on the list. This training begins May 9, 2020 and runs until June 6th (4 weeks). It is designed for those interested in exploring TWC Leadership and our Value and Principles and how these connect with your own.

The Coaches Training Track is a year-long development process. This track begins on July 6, 2020, immediately after the end of our summer training ebb, and runs through June 2021. This training leverages the Warrior's one-year commitment to develop transformational leadership skills through the real-time practice of prophetically inspired coaching and mentoring. See the Website Highlight in this Frontline for information on applications for these Specialty Trainings.

By Gabriela Pappas

This is a year of unprecedented favor in taking the land back both corporately and personally. Holy Spirit is leading the war cry of go, “it’s time to conquer and claim all I have for you.” In TWC we hear His roar of “now is the time to run together.”

I love running together and exploring new territory Papa has for all of us. I believe intercession is a big part of taking the land back. I never thought of myself loving intercession as I am doing in this new season. I see us taking our stand with Jesus saying “NO” to the enemy and claiming our rights that we had dropped or left behind without knowing they were legally ours.

It’s an exciting time standing our ground! And running toward the enemy advancing strategically with Holy Spirit’s war plans.

Part of our DNA as warriors is “Intercession that creates an atmosphere of intimacy and majesty where the permissions and provisions of heaven come to earth”. Our principal says, “In intimate relationship with God we discover what Jesus and the Spirit are praying and agree with them in intercession”. What a time for us to live in as we have the great honor of partnering with the Trinity to combat the enemy and his plans.

We are strategically placed to lead other ministries in the plans of the Father through blueprints. As we pray like the adored people of favor that we are we will see walls crumble.

I love how our friendship and love for each other makes our adversary angry. When we flip negatives, this confuses the enemy. In our unity we cannot be stopped! We are a force to be reckoned with.

As our identity expands and grows in Christ, we are unstoppable. I see a bird formation flying and as the point man gets tired or bloody, we as warriors don’t quit or stop, we just go to the back of the formation and get loved on, healed, and encouraged. After we rest in Jesus, we will eventually make it to the front again to lead.

Never, ever, give up or quit! We are family, and family never quits or leaves anyone behind. I love you all and I am cheering you all on! As a “band of brothers” we can never be defeated!

Blessings,
Gabriela Pappas

Meagan Blessing

About me

Growing up with a name like Meagan (“Hi, it’s Me-again!”) Abra (like Abraham), I was easily identifiable, whether I liked it or not! I’m an artist, entrepreneur, and dreamer (not necessarily in that order), married to my hero, Michael Blessing, also a fine artist. We have seven adult children; our oldest son is married, so we now have three sons and four daughters ages 19 to 27. My interests are too varied to list but suffice it to say I fit best into the Jack-of-all-Trades, Master-of-None category, which makes me a relatively apt conversationalist at social gatherings and a curiously resourceful person. I love learning!

What part of God’s Nature are you discovering?

Currently, I am on a treasure hunt with Papa, training and traveling with joy and delight. (Ps. 16:11) He is fun! I am presently exploring this cheerful, lighthearted, surprising side of His nature.

In what ways are your thoughts and language being upgraded in TWC?

TWC is teaching me to diligently grind the negative scratches from my world-view lenses. As an optimist, I didn’t even know I had negative scratches! I’m learning to spot negativity, target it, and shift it. Everything God does is redemptive; Jesus came to save the world! (John 3:17) Therefore, one key to building Kingdom mindsets is identifying the positive possibility inherent in any negative, then choosing to regard that situation positively. Why? Because what we focus on, we magnify. Frankly, I prefer to pour spiritual Miracle-Gro on my little Fruits-Of-The-Spirit garden rather than dump it on the weeds that need pulling.

Share some of your Identity Statements:

Covey's quote articulates my dilemma when I joined TWC in 2019. If identity theft is spiritual, who am I, really? Thankfully, Holy Spirit has given me insight into who Papa created me to be. My core identity is supported by the statements that follow, which outline essential values and address more specific facets of who I am and am becoming.

I am the multifaceted, Precious Jewel that reflects and radiates Heaven's light on Earth.

I am a Peacemaker. I bring order to chaos and harmony to discord. I carry Heaven's calm into every situation, shifting atmospheres and establishing climates of peace.

I am a Blessing Bringer who is miraculously resourced by Heaven, filled to overflowing with God's abundance to resource Kingdom directives.

I am a Mother of Many. I lead by example, encouraging others to grow up into all faith.

How are you growing in becoming the Beloved?

Last year, Jesus took me into the wilderness. Resigned, I clung to Hosea 2:14 because I didn't have any reserves at the time with which to endure hardship. However, that wilderness experience was extraordinarily sweet, and I emerged with a steadfast confidence I did not previously possess. I now know I am the Beloved.

What has become your favorite INSTEAD?

Matthew 19:26 is my favorite instead. When the circumstances around me seem impossible (a regular occurrence these days), I have a promise that God will take every impossible situation and turn it into a brilliant new possibility instead!
