Who We Are

Our Training Lifestyle

By Christine Casten
-Executive Director

This Frontline is a bit different. In light of all that is going on, and with the changes we are making to prepare to explore this new land, we reflect on our Training Lifestyle. We will share some internal transitions, aligning our own “how to” with how God is moving.

We have a simple choice in this New Era of Kingdom: Will we explore and step into what God asks for this time, upgrading our “how to” and tapping into the creativity of God? Or will we seek to implement an older model of Church (or of TWC) and repackage it? I think you already know the answer to this one!

We’ve seen great transition and change in our world. Fear is rampant. Insecurity is rising and division is strong. Yet, we have said all along, even in the Highway 1 Blueprint in the fall, and our TWC Now and Beyond Blueprint: God is calling us (all the Church) into unity. He is calling us into a global mindset of connection, growth and taking ground, together, as a united force, stronger because of connections and celebration of our own identities, anointing and diversity in Him.

The key? This only comes in intimate connection with God and heart connections through Him. When we see the state of the world and what is being released, we find the opposite of God's plan...why would we think the enemy would willingly partner with what God is doing? Yet, he always points to God's opposite and it's easy to see what God has on hand for us.

We have an opportunity
-- maybe it would be better to say, we have an invitation – from God to think differently.

TWC has a value of being a prophetic culture. Much of that value is lived out because we passionately pursue the heart of God. This passion opens our hearts to being a healthy and joyful prophetic Warrior-EPIC Nation.

As a prophetically inspired community, we learn to hear and steward what God is doing. This cultural value means we train in sensitivity to Him and with each other. This means we continue to mature. God asks that we are willing to let our "how to" be upgraded and refined.

Our training lifestyle includes maturing in the prophetic. We choose to do what we see our Father doing and say what we hear our Father say, just as Jesus modeled. We are inspired to seek the prophetic promises of God, knowing our lives are meant to live in intimate partnership with Him in the fullness of those promises.

The TWC culture we live in reflects our Training Lifestyle. And, yes, it is very different from the world. Our development and connections are always being strengthened and refined. TWC is not a building or an organization. It is not about color, race, nationality or denomination. TWC is a living, breathing, Kingdom organism acting as a bridge from heaven to earth.

We have a commission to live from intimacy in God and heart connections through Him. That is the lens we wear. That is the perspective we adopt. Our perspectives define our relationships. Perspectives can open or close doors to truly seeing the heart of another. Let's choose to see with God's perspectives so those doors will fly open.

We allow time for the process of our growth in the prophetic, practicing "hearing" God's heart, loving the learning and knowing the process of our growth enriches us beyond our wildest imagination. We do this as individuals. We also do this as a Warrior-EPIC nation.

We have committed to take what each of you share, pulling together all the dots, to better see God's plan (not any one person's idea). This collective wisdom forms the strategy we have for now and future. Our passion for Him is needed in this world. Our perspectives of heart connections through Him are what people long to see lived out.

All of this passion and preparation makes us ready for when God says,

"The time is now!"

As we come to the end of our current training year, enjoy ebb and then come back in July ready for our new Training Year.

We are putting some of the final tweaks in place for what is coming: New Website Forum (our own TWC Facebook), Forum Calendar, and our new Operations Manager, Mary, highlighted in our Member Spotlight section. Read through this Frontline to find out more about the things and people God is putting in place.

VALUE: DEVELOP A PROPHETIC PEOPLE WITH IMPACT, WHO ARE INTUITIVE, JOYFUL, HEALTHY AND STRONG

Principle: Develop healthy prophetic people who think supernaturally, displacing obstacles with majesty, fully persuaded that good overcomes evil.

Action Plan:

Our training is based on the New Testament prophetic that Jesus embodied.

Our focus is on the nature of God and value for the Fruit of the Spirit, as equally as the Gifts. We are inspired to seek the prophetic promises of God, knowing our lives are meant to live in the fullness of those promises.

We allow time for the process of our growth, loving the learning and knowing the process makes us rich.

We have the courage to take the time to heal before moving to higher altitudes of our training, knowing wounds do not heal as easily in those places. When God brings up an area of wounding, we immediately take a warrior stance to bravely face it and give it over to God.

VALUE: DEVELOP THE MATURITY OF THE NEW WAY OF LIFE IN CHRIST

Principle: Focus on who we are as a New Creation in a New Testament Kingdom.

Action Plan:

The New Testament and the development of our righteousness is our focus

We speak and train to who people are and are becoming.

Maturity in God's Kingdom

Sharon Rudolph
Director of Member Development

Isn't it just like God to have a design that is way better than the world's, even if that world calls it upside down! He is so creative and purposeful with His relationship with us. Jesus carried that design into Israel when He modeled Kingdom life for us with His disciples. We, as believers, are called to be mature, to grow up in Christ. Jesus gave us an explanation to embrace: being as a little child to be grown-up?

Jesus tells Nicodemus that he must be born again, then He tells His disciples they are to become like children. At first glance, from the world's perspective, this all appears quite foolish, but God knew what He was doing. Both require humility. So, let's take a look at humility, Kingdom humility.

Merriam-Webster says that humility is freedom from pride or arrogance: "the quality or state of being humble." Humble is "reflecting, expressing, or offered in a spirit of deference or submission." The world knows submission is part of humility, but submission to what? True humility involves laying down whatever we think or believe in deference to what Father God says and believes. Being the beloved of God is humility. Owning the identity God designed is humility.

With this kind of humility comes childlike wonder and loving the learning. TWC training is designed to open space for your surrender and submission to God. We are not expected to know what we don't know. Like children we have the freedom to ask and your training is there to support your ask. As Believers, we know the One Who created the design, makes the promises and provides the provision. Having a Good Father makes all the difference. (Gal. 4/Rom. 8) He brings the outcome and we grow in trust: child-like trust.

As each warrior trains, we go from "did he really mean that for me?" to "Thank You Papa for sharing Your heart with me." We may start by asking, "Is that really who You say I am?" and move to "How delightful it is to be free to be who You made me to be!"

Maturity comes when we move from concern for our own growth, life, or circumstances to focusing on God's heart, His focus and delight. We exchange world views for God's view, especially of who He created us to be. Healthy, strong, intuitive, and joyful Warriors submit their thinking to God's, laying down their own thinking to follow Jesus' example, the Word of God and Holy Spirit's direction.

What upgrades would you like to see in your sonship with Father God? What promise is Papa upgrading for you right now to help promote your growth in maturity? How has surrender played into the development of your identity in Jesus? How might you partner with God for an upgrade in courage to tackle facing and wounds getting in the way of your climb? Who are you becoming that requires supernatural thinking? How is God overcoming obstacles to that life with His good?

Your Beauty Call

by Linda Smallbones

God has a beauty plan for you. His plan starts and ends in the secret place of His heart, that place He has carved out just for you and Him.

Psalm 139:13 TPT:

You formed my innermost being, shaping my delicate inside and my intricate outside, and wove them all together in my mother's womb.

His plan is wholeness; that you as an integrated being can know who you are, where you belong, and how to have meaningful, healthy connections with others. Wholeness is what you have been chosen and created for. Your spirit and soul knew it even before you knew Him!

In life, fragmentation occurs through the choices we or others make. Fragmentation brings with losses; loss of meaning, self-worth, contentment, loss of connection with our Creator. Fragmentation can also be called low self-esteem, shame, fear, loneliness, immaturity, performance, self-hatred, broken relationships, and many other names.

Here is a Truth: You can choose to live in His gorgeous beauty plan for you; just as God reveals it to you, piece by piece. You are already whole, no matter what has occurred in your life. God made you whole, pure, righteous and blameless. He sees you just as He sees Jesus. You have been chosen to be His three-dimensional living representation upon the earth.

"And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord's glory, are being transformed into His likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit." (2 Cor 3:18).

One of our Warrior Declarations is "Warriors are fascinated by God's majesty, sovereignty and beauty." We truly become what we behold, our increasing intimacy with Him making us whole in every way. We become who HE says we are. Now isn't that a beautiful plan?!

What part of you is God highlighting for wholeness right now?

How will you partner with the Holy Spirit to receive the Divine exchange of your fragmentation for His wholeness?

How has God made you more beautiful in the last year?

What aspect of His beauty do you radiate in the world?

TWC Training

Worship Ebb and Upgrades in Training

This training year is ending on June 20th. What that means is that from June 21st through July 5th we will have a Worship Ebb to make space for you to spend time with family and to focus on your Intimacy with God and all He has done in your life the past 12 months. There is more specific information on the website under "How We Train"/"Worship Ebb". The Coaches' and Specialty Training Gmail accounts will go on hiatus; emails received in them will be responded to after the Worship Ebb. Facebook will go quiet for those 2 weeks between training years, so there will be no postings. You certainly have the freedom to contact your TWC friends and buddies through your personal Facebook or email.

If you are still in a Level 1 training your coaches are here to help you transition to the Foundations Stages 1-6. If you have any questions about this, please email them at twclass.member@gmail.com before June 21st.

Once we get back from Ebb, the coaches Gmail will have been updated to reflect our name change. The new Gmail is twc.warriorepic@gmail.com. We will forward the old email to the new one, but please make this change so you will be ready.

(You will receive an email about this on July 5th so you won't forget. Any trainings received in the last week before Ebb (June 14-20) will not receive a coaches' response until after those first 2 weeks back.)

In light of all the moving forward going on, new Advanced Training Modules have been made available. These were written and orchestrated by Angie Taylor. They focus on the Armor of God linking the armor with our TWC Key Territories.

(Information on the Key Territories can be found under the Intercession tab on the website.) If you enjoyed her breakout session during "Training Days: No Boundaries" you will love these ATMs. ATMs may be requested from Member Services

(twc.memberservices@gmail.com) after completion of Level 1 or Foundations Stages 1-6. If you are in an ATM, you still have permission granted to step into a Specialty Training like Intel Development Training that comes up in September. Just set that ATM aside during the Specialty Training, then pick the it back up once the Specialty Training is completed.

Training Call information can be found in several places right now: on the website under Access/Connections, through Facebook under Events, or through the Thursday emails sent from Member services. If you cannot find this information, don't hesitate to email the coaches, or post the question on Facebook. This will change in July when the new TWC Chat Forum is released. (see Website article)

On the Website.....

Chat Forum and & Event Calendar

Coming in July!

A HUGE upgrade for TWC: A chat forum and event calendar on the TWC website!

The new forum will open in July. It has some similarities to what you know about Facebook, but also has many other features...that means you will need to “get your warrior on” and step into a bit of a learning curve.

In the Beta Test we just completed, we know you will have some adjustments from how Facebook looks and feels. At the same time, there are things that will look and feel similar. We also feel you will have some great additional features to help you in connecting to upcoming training calls and specialty training.

And yes, you can still post links to worship songs from YouTube and add gifs, emojis, etc. to your post! You can also friend and message other warriors.

Once the new website updates are released, we will have a calendar on the website with calls and events. The calendar will be posted on the TWC Forum and you will have ways for those things to show up on your personal profile, too. All call, connection, and training information will be under your account log-in on the TWC website.

More specific information will be sent out after the Ebb. We will have training videos on your profile page in the forum, too.

For now, know that on July 6th you will be able to connect on Facebook, but shortly after we all get to learn something new, set up our Forum profiles and establish our settings for the TWC Forum. Facebook will be phased out and all our TWC connection conversations, training call information, etc., that would have been posted on Facebook will be on the TWC Forum through your website login. Your coaches will be here through the Coaches’ gmail to help you navigate this new adventure.

Note: We will still have our public pages in social media (“The Warrior Commission TWC” on Facebook and @TWC_Commission on Instagram), but we will move all of our member conversations, along with training call events into our website.

We are posting almost daily on these (public) social media pages. It’s a great place to be encouraged, share these encouragements with others and connect to some of the words/voices we are shouting out in the atmosphere in this time.

Look for these questions on Facebook. They come from our Frontline articles and are here to generate more conversation with our TWC Tribe. As you read Frontline, look at these questions and get ready to answer them over the next few weeks!

What aspect of His beauty do you radiate in the world?

How is God overcoming obstacles to that life with His good?

How has God made you more beautiful in the last year?

What promise is Papa upgrading for you right now for your growth in maturity?

What upgrades would you like to see in your sonship with Father God?

Who are you becoming that requires supernatural thinking?

How has surrender played into the development of your identity in Jesus?

Member Spotlight

About me

I grew up in Arvada, Colorado and due to my husband's work, we have lived all throughout Colorado, a few years in Omaha, NE, and finally made our way to the Dallas, Texas area almost four years ago. Since we were both working from home, we decided to follow our daughter, her husband, and our first grandson to McKinney, TX. We have come to love the area and our life here. Since our arrival, our second daughter moved here after her departure from the Navy. She has since married and now we have a second grandson. Both families live close by, so we have a lot of fun with them. My husband and I just celebrated our 39th anniversary.

What part of God's Nature are you discovering?

My journey these past few years has God revealing, and me seeing, the vastness of HIM, His creation, and who HE is. It seems the more I learn about God the more I realize how big He is! The detail of His creation astonishes my mind and persuades me to learn more...about everything. My studies have ranged from the intricacies of heaven – what is heaven like? – to the details of the smallest of creation's building blocks – quarks. I'm sure there is something even smaller – we have yet to discover them. God is into the details, as these subjects tell, and it has helped me to trust Him so much more – If He can create with the level of detail and thought that we see in the vast beauty and grandeur of space, I'm quite sure He can figure out a good solution to my fairly simple concerns.

In what ways are your thoughts and language being upgraded in TWC?

TWC has helped me to put down the negative, both in my thoughts and language, which ultimately has a direct impact on my actions. Where before I looked at the "problem", now I can see beyond the "challenge" to the possibilities. I don't find myself feeling overwhelmed by life as much now – when I am not focusing on the problem it is easier to see what else is happening around me and I don't get bogged down with what is wrong, rather I can see what is going right, and what I still need to tweak. It turns out to be the same situation, but one way of looking at it creates feelings of hopelessness, while the other way is empowering.

What excites you about stepping into the Operations Manager role in TWC?

I am very excited about stepping into the Operations Manager role because I feel that this is the job I have been training for all my life. I love serving others through my organization and administrative skills and can't think of a better way to serve God than by helping His people get to know Him and who they are in Him. TWC is an incredible organization where the children of God can become all He had in mind the day He created them, and I get to help make that possible! That is heaven on earth for me!

I AM AND AM BECOMING...

...I am Strong
...I am Loved
...I am Courageous
...I am Capable
...I am becoming the woman God had in mind the day He created me.

How are you growing in Becoming the Beloved....

I now believe that I am God's beloved – HE truly does love me. It took most of my life for that to go from "yes, God loves everyone – even me" to "Abba adores me – I am His delight – and He is mine!" There is great power in understanding that to the very depths of my soul.

Since joining TWC, what has become your favorite INSTEAD

My favorite INSTEAD is God's answer to my concern for my family's spiritual journey. INSTEAD of focusing on what it looks like now, I can focus on God's promise to me: "I have your family in MY hands – they are not forgotten – they are MY priority!"

Who We Are

God calls us to train as Warrior Ambassadors who are a Kingdom bridge to unconditional love and freedom in Christ. We empower a dynamic lifestyle with God and others. Our passion to seek God's heart means He's our first love. We believe God expands our capacity to love greatly through abiding rest in Him, even as seasoned Warriors.
