The Majestic Intimacy of God

By Christine Casten
Executive Director of TWC

Sitting here in this moment, I feel the presence of God. Writing the words to this title and sitting back to wait on Him opened a space where His majesty enters into my life. His presence is strong. His majesty unquestioned. His love complete.

God is with us, in us, all around us. This presence can't be captured in a box, and yet, it is tangible. He is tangible. He is real.

The Father has intentionally captured more of our lives, bit by bit and moment by moment. He has spent a lot of time resetting how we see Him and how we see ourselves. It's a relationship that flows through His majestic intimacy into our lives and then, into the lives of others.

What is it to bring the atmosphere of heaven to earth? Many people would point to miracles, signs, and wonders. They talk about Jesus being moved with compassion, a tangible expression of love for those who are changing, transforming, and growing. He brought heaven to earth because of His love, not to prove He loves us.

Yes, those miracles might catch our attention, but it's the majestic intimacy of God that holds it.

It's the all-powerful, all-knowing, all-loving, all-encompassing presence of this God who chooses not to sit idly by or play games with people. He's not a gamer, user, or manipulator. In fact, He's pretty straight forward, even in the midst of imagery, we have yet to understand or revelation that is at the tipping point of pouring into our lives.

What is it like to intercess with our God? What is it like to commune with the One who loves us beyond our finite imaginations? What is it to develop and grow in the fertile rejuvenation of a conversation with the Great I Am? It is a partnership of intimate connection.

Have you ever wondered if we are missing something of His majesty in our intimacy with Him? Have you ever explored how that intimate connection with God's heart triggers the provision and promises of heaven?

How is God training and preparing you through His majestic intimacy? How do you feel intimate connection with God equips you to rule and reign with Him?

THE WARRIOR COMMISSION ~ DECISIONS THAT DEFINE US ~

We have decided that intercession creates an atmosphere of partnership, intimacy, and majesty for the permission and provision of heaven to come to earth. It is where we are trained and prepared to become His beloved Bride, equipped to rule and reign with Him.

TRAINING: SPECIALTY TRAINING DATES

Specialty Trainings explore a specific focus within TWC and are available throughout our training year. All Specialty Trainings have activations with specific deadlines for submissions to coaches. The time parameters are designed to create an environment of “kind pressure” that brings richness forward through the training. These Specialty Trainings are available to anyone who has completed Foundations Stages 1-6, or Level 1.

More extensive Information on Specialty Training opportunities can be found under the Trainings tab on the Website under the Specialty Training heading. Below is a short synopsis of each one.

In the February 2021 Warrior Update you received information about start times and application deadlines for each one. LDT begins April 5th, IDT begins September 3rd, and Champions Training begins July 6th. We want to encourage you to prayerfully consider setting aside your ongoing self-paced Advanced Training and explore what is possible with our Specialty Training format. Once the Specialty Training is complete you can pick up that Advanced Training with new eyes and receive even more from it.

Applications on are on the website under the Access Tab/Application

LDT – Leadership Development Training

“Within this community, where family are being relationally connected as a significant part of life, the ultimate goal is to train to stand in this place where we do not loose relationship on the battlefield -- with each other or the Lord. It is our training as Warriors and as Ambassadors that ensures that outcome.” LDT has been designed with these goals in mind.

This 4-week training covers these areas of your personal development to help you find your heart for leadership within God’s family and army.

Note: LDT must be completed before stepping into any Leadership role within TWC. Join LDT to dig into TWC’s leadership culture and how it impacts you and your leadership in God’s Kingdom.

Champion Training

Champion Training provides an environment to expand what you've received in your previous training modules and identity exploration. Intimacy with all of Who God is, exponentially increases as well as confidence in identity and commission from God. This training is not self-paced and includes monthly calls for training and connection.

Champion Training members experience a more in-depth training. Moving through a progression of 4 Focuses, specifically designed for this type of training. Each year, we take a team of up to 15 members up Champion Mountain.

You will have 1-2 dedicated Champion Coach(es) for a 12-month period. This focused training makes space for team and one on one connections with your Champion coaches. Champion Training lasts for 11 months and begins with our TWC training year in July. It runs from July to June the following year.

IDT - Intel Development Training

Intel Development Training (IDT) is training focused on giving you a sneak peek in the background of our Intel process. It takes you through some of the initial steps that make up our Blueprint development.

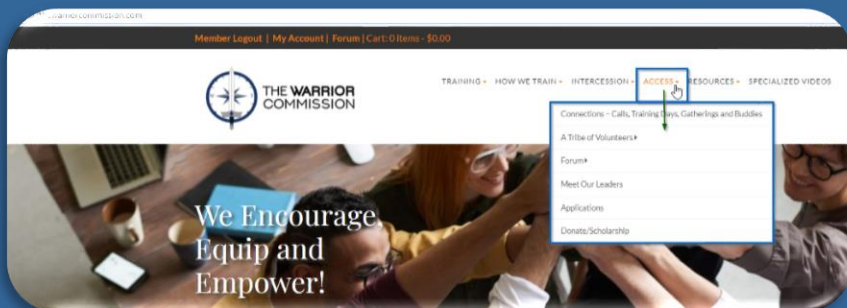

Participants experience numerous aspects of our unique process and get a behind the scenes understanding of how it all works. The training includes development of Intel, distillation of Intel, and dream interpretation along with Impact Prayer development.

Currently offered one time a year (fall). This 10-week training gives you opportunities to practice in a safe environment your intimacy with God, listening to His heart for a matter, and then find out what to do with that information in a small team format.

INTERCESSION: SHARING IN THE DEEP HEART OF GOD

Have you ever felt that nudge from the Holy Spirit to pray for someone or to encourage someone?

The first time this ever happened to me was when I was a teenager, sound asleep in the middle of the night. I suddenly woke up with an image of a friend I had not seen in years in my mind. He was outside at night and sitting on a curb.

I knew that he was deeply hurting. I could feel it. Not only that, but I could feel the aching heart of God for him.

I began sobbing as both my friend's grief and God's heart of compassion filled me. I heard the Holy Spirit whisper "please pray for him with Me". I was wrecked as I joined God's heart of love for this friend throughout the night. Later that week I learned that on that very night my friend had run away from home and was suicidal.

Have you thought of a time where you felt that nudge? Most often we do not experience it as I did that night. It usually comes in a fleeting thought or a gentle whisper.

Now take this experience you had and come with me to the throne room of God. Go beyond the glorious worship to the very center of the Throne of Grace.

There on that Throne of Grace is where you find the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as their hearts are engulfed in intercession. They are praying for you. They are praying for your friends. They are praying for your enemies. God's compassion compels Him as He feels the pain and suffering we go through.

His eyes become fixed on someone who is alone and struggling. His heart aches. The passionate Trinity look among themselves and ask "Who will pray with Us? Who can We trust to share Our heart with? ...And They all in perfect unity look to you.

What honor! What intimacy! What majesty! How humbling to be chosen to share in the very heart of God for someone! To join the passionate God in intercession! To be asked to be the expression of His love on this earth!

What is God whispering to your heart today? Do you hear Him beckoning you closer to His throne of Grace so that you can experience what is on His heart? Is there someone He is asking you to stand for - with His love? Rejoice in this Holy honor of true intercession. The kind of intercession that takes place deep within the heart of God.

Look for these questions on the Forum . They come from the articles found within this Frontline publication and are here to generate more conversation with our TWC Tribe. As you read Frontline, look at these questions and get ready to answer them over the next few weeks in the Warrior Chat group. See you there!

Member Spotlight: Annu Vijayvargiya

Hello! My name is Annu Vijayvargiya. I was born and raised in Malaysia. My parents got divorced when I was 14 years old. I moved to Elkhart, Indiana when I was 16 years old. I went to Purdue University for both my ungraduated and graduate degree, where I met my husband. Together, we have a 9-year-old son. We moved from Indiana to Georgia when Amrit was only one month old. I was a practicing licensed counselor but took a sabbatical about a year ago when I felt led to be more equipped in inner healing and deliverance.

I came to know Christ Jesus when I was 18 years old in college through campus crusade. Life had been traumatic for me up until then. I had been abused sexually, emotionally, and verbally. I had battled depression, anxiety, and suicidal thoughts/attempts. Although, I came to know Christ at 18, I did not have a good foundation. I went pursuing after Him in churches, among other Christians, conferences, retreats, but His presence was always temporary.

Not until March 2020, I attended a Holy Spirit encounter where I learned about the power of the Holy Spirit and I was delivered from many unclean spirits. I was instantly freed of depression, anxiety, and suicidal thoughts. I went from being on 10 different anti-psychotic medication to zero. Father God continued to illuminate my inner life, the state of my soul. Self-righteousness and self-focused plagued me. I was using the Bible as my self-help book and prayer as means to complain and feel sorry for myself. I wanted to escape the byproduct of my past, I wanted justice, I saw myself as the victim and blamed everyone for my life.

“Be still and know that I am
GOD” - Psalm 46:10

About this time, I joined TWC. TWC helped me to move from victim mentality to warrior present-future focus. I received guidance, a community of fellow believers who are encouragers, and prayer warriors and the language to express my experiences.

TWC taught me to remember and embrace who I am and whose I am which helps me daily to overcome the battle in my mind. I now embrace I belong to Father God through Jesus who covers me with perfect love which surpasses all knowledge.

I have liberty and freedom by embracing His truths. I am filled with joy, gladness and self-control as my mind and soul is renewed and strengthened by the Holy Spirit. I am also filled with His fulness through the Spirit of wisdom and revelation. I am comforted, healed, and provided for because of His goodness. No enemy has a hold on me for I am renewed daily on Kingdom perspective.

As I grow indifferent to the fallen world, I become more intimate with the Trinity.

God's words are true yesterday, today, and tomorrow -

"Be still and know that I am God" – Psalm 46:10

"I am comforted, healed, and provided for, because of HIS goodness!"
