THE WARRIOR COMMISSION

Identity Statement

Ambassadors of God's Love

We are ambassadors of the Anointed One, who carry the message of Christ to the world as though God were tenderly pleading with them directly through our lips. So, we tenderly plead with you on Christ's behalf, "Turn back to God and be reconciled to him." (2Co 5:20 TPT)

GOD'S BEEN UP TO SOMETHING

By Christine Casten

God is so faithful to prepare us for the journey ahead. As we began to put this Frontline together, the Lord prompted me to go back and revisit the first time He spoke this identity over us. It was in 2016, when we were commissioned as Warrior Ambassadors.

It took time, but the commission became a part of our name. It became a part of our journey. Helping others find their commission became a part of our own commission. Ambassador became an identity statement that is included here in raw form. You will be able to find the elements of Warrior Ambassador of God's love in many different expressions throughout the commission below.

Just to remind ourselves of God's previous and intentional nature, I am reprinting this commission again. He goes before us, makes a way and partners with us for today and tomorrow.

As a note - I have changed the "Class" to "Commission." IN the process of our transition, God moved us from the TWC mountain to a mountain range. We crossed a plane of transition in the process, but God had us focus on the mountain range ahead.

The mountain range contained various symbolic areas in which we train – Champion Mountain being one of them. God continued to expand us to an all-terrain community so we could pioneer into where we are today.

As you read through it, consider the things God has revealed since that time -- our identity statements, Foundations and Champion Training, and many more. Who can imagine what else God has already suggested that we have yet to grab hold of for tomorrow? Enjoy 😊

Warrior Ambassadors

Anaheim Training Days, 2016 - Christine Casten

We are on a fabulous adventure. Tonight is not about a moment in time. It is not about a fleeting instance that will pass quickly into memory. It is a moment where we, as a company of warriors, are standing as one. We are unified, arms linked and connected.

We do not know what the future holds. We do not know what we will explore or what will come to light. When do we ever have those absolutes anyway? But we do have faith that it will always be worth the sacrifice, training, and persistence. We know we will move forward and advance - a unified force of breakthrough.

You stand in a company of warriors who recognize this is a good fight. As Graham reminds us...any fight you win is a good fight...and with Jesus, Holy Spirit, and Father God, we have already won the territory for our community for this season...and are already in it. It's a fabulous fight!

Today you are being commissioned as TWC Kingdom Ambassadors. As an ambassador you are an official envoy, a diplomatic agent of the highest rank of the Kingdom.

As you move through the next few months and until we meet again, know that your journey is an important part of our tribe this coming year. Together, we form a Gideon's army of Kingdom Ambassadors. We are a group of mighty men and women of God who are ready for what comes, knowing:

We will rise to the level of our training... and we train to the highest level.

I sense the Lord would say:

Warriors,

Today begins a new chapter of exploration. I Am expanding your territory to more and sparking creativity beyond your wildest dreams. In this place, I am opening up a wide expanse of limitless possibilities.

In this Key Territory of discovery, I offer, to all those in The Warrior Commission, an invitation to more. This offer invites you to become an engaged celebrant of this life.

I know you are used to having limits. Limitations seem to surround those who are of this world. But, My Ambassador, you are not of this world! You are of a Kingdom that is not bound by time or geography. You are of a Kingdom that is ever expanding and growing. You are part of a living movement of life, sustained by My heartbeat and carried by an unconditional, limitless love.

I have plans to take ground through your journey into more. I will take ground within you, and I will partner to take ground outside of you. I Am a Territorial Spirit and all the territory you can see or dream of is ultimately Ours.

- Don't you want to be there with Me when the territory is overtaken by my Love?
- Wouldn't you like to be a part of transformation, growth, and acceleration in all your areas of influence?

So, I take you now from the TWC mountain to the TWC mountain range.

Oh, yes, I open up a huge area of exploration. You can go up, down, around through and up and down again and still be taking new ground. This mountain range holds many possibilities and adventures to discover. This mountain range represents the limitless possibilities I have ready to show you.

- I offer multiple opportunities to grow into and experience.
- I offer new training in how to impact your areas of influence.
- I offer a variety of opportunities you have not seen before because I want you to experience the limitless possibilities of My heart.
- I offer a creative expression you will delight in uncovering.
- I offer a new understanding of what it means to be a Kingdom Ambassador

With this promise, I make a deposit in you. This deposit is fueled by the power of the one with the ONE, Me, I AM. This deposit arrests the doubts and fears that would try to limit you and your thinking. This deposit releases a training ground of confidence, joy, and peace.

What is this deposit?

It is all the promises I have spoken over those in The Warrior Commission. What do these promises contain?

- Provision released to each of you for your through identity, community, and opportunity.
- Journals of all the dreams I have placed in each of your hearts for what TWC is now...and is becoming.
- Blueprints and strategies I have for TWC's kingdom identity and how we will express it through intercession and innovation.
- Momentum of heaven to see these things come to pass.

You are part of a resolute assembly of Warrior Ambassadors. You are warrior, intercessor, and prophetic voice all rolled into one. You are part of an alliance dedicated to carry a banner of positive influence, identity confidence and encouraging revelation into our communities, churches and beyond.

As a warrior, you fight to advance My kingdom. You train in the secret place of My love and develop confidence in your identity and call.

As an ambassador, you learn to represent My nature, My goodness, and My kindness. You have full authority from Me to reframe mindsets, represent transformation and overcome all obstacles in your path.

You stand here representing the Warrior Ambassadors who came before and are here now. You stand here representing those who are here in Spirit today and those who are yet to come. You stand on this ground, unwavering in compromise, and dedicated to discovering what lies here, and waits beyond.

You are a Warrior Ambassador, representing TWC and the Kingdom of My heart!

As a warrior ambassador, I brought you to this tribe. I brought you to this tribe, not because of what you “do,” but because of WHO you are.

For most, traveling through the clash between two kingdoms, weighs them down. But for My Warrior Ambassadors, you are lifted up, energized and focused. I call all those who are passionate pursuers of My Heart to TWC to become Warrior Ambassadors of the Kingdom.

Now, Warrior Ambassadors, I call you to rise up, link arms and move forward. Never forget your heavenly Identity in Me. Never forget to discover the heavenly identities of your fellow Warriors.

Always remember, you are all here for such a time as this.

RECEIVING GOD'S LOVE

BY SHARON RUDOLPH

It has been said, "you can't give what you don't have." Being a Warrior Ambassador of God's Love has a prerequisite. Simply said, it is receiving God's Love.

God is such a generous giver. Lavish and Wise knowing what we need better than we do.

What if the challenges you are walking through now are designed to open space in your life so that you can receive God's love (for what is coming down the road)? What if God has designed you to carry His love in ways unique to you, as well as those that are common to all His children?

John 20:21-23 Again Jesus said, 'Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.' And with that He breathed on them and said, 'Receive the Holy spirit. If you forgive anyone's sins, their sins are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.'

What a beautiful example of Jesus giving His love to the disciples exactly the way they needed it. In their grief, He showed up miraculously. He then helped them understand what had just happened. He showed them what was theirs, as He sent them, too. Did they have the capacity for what was ahead? No Way. So, Jesus set them up. Though they would face many challenges in that adventure, He gave them what they needed to be able to do the thing that was put before them.

You, too, are a disciple of this marvelous King. What challenges and adventures are in front of you that are making space for God to show up and pour into you? It doesn't matter if those challenges, or adventures, are from God's design or through the enemy's scheme. God's presence, redemption, and overwhelming love are always a part of them. Who is He for you and how is He loving you today?

Coaches Corner:

WARRIOR AMBASSADOR OF GOD'S LOVE

By Alma Copenhefer

Our Identity in Christ has become a great passion for me. Not just for me individually, but Our identity as His bride and beloved, as His stewards and warriors, and as His representatives/ambassadors on Earth. The more that I've tried to embrace my identity, the more that the old man has reared its head against my identity trying to disprove it. This progress however has only fueled the passion that has grown within me. I am so thankful for the life lessons that Holy Spirit walks us through ever so gently and lovingly.

A recent experience has given me new revelation of what being God's Ambassador of Love is. It involves in caring for my elderly mother. She's 87 years old, has had three strokes, and suffers from dementia. Taking on the full-time care of my mom has been life altering for me and my family. We no longer have the freedom to be spontaneous. A weekend away with family, a dinner with friends, or a simple walk around the neighborhood are enjoyed few and far between. In the struggle of having these restrictions, I can vulnerably say that there have been times I have felt the agony of being the hands and feet of Jesus for my mother.

Through the scares we had when my mom had Covid, I realized that the momentary discomfort and sacrifices that are being made to be His Warrior Ambassador of Love far outweigh my discomfort and restrictions. Being a Warrior Ambassador of His Love means that I'm willing to sacrifice for the sake of others and be the hands and feet of Jesus. I've developed a new kind of love and compassion in this process of stepping into my identity as God's Ambassador of Love.

Being God's Ambassador of Love is being able to lay down our lives and to freely give without reservation because we know God is a God that sees, rewards, replenishes, restores, and gives to us a hundredfold for what we invest into the Kingdom. We don't count our cost, but we count the cost of NOT stepping into the calling of Ambassador and the impact that action will have on the Kingdom of God.

- ❖ How is God inviting you to step into being His Warrior Ambassador of Love?
- ❖ What is the cost that you're willing to sacrifice so that the Kingdom of God can come in your area of influence?

TRAINING HIGHLIGHTS

PARTNERSHIP WITH “WHO IS GOD FOR YOU?”

The Nature of God is a common topic within this community and this question “Who is God for you?” often shows up in The Warrior Commission Training Modules and on Warrior Calls. This simple question is a beginning place for our partnership with God. It is a valid and helpful question to ask God, “Who are YOU for me now?” not just within TWC but in all areas of life. This is a mindset that impacts our peace and confidence with each step we take in life. It empowers and grows our hope and faith for the outcomes that are possible and takes us beyond religious thinking to Kingdom Mindsets that change the world around us.

As you step into your TWC Training, you might want to ask the Lord this question. Then as you drive to work, feed the family, cut the grass, share Jesus with a friend, or even post on social media, go back to that question. The Partnership is the most important aspect of our lives. Engaging with God as Who He wants to be for us is part of the Partnership. What if every aspect of life is God focused and you can see Who He is for you? What if your TWC Training and relational connections are simply practice in a safe place for this partnership?

Most things in life take at least some practice. Begin asking this question, and listen, watch, and pause. God will show up. He loves to show up. Practice by taking the time to observe how He does show up and tuning into what He wants you to know. Your TWC training modules give you opportunities to practice what you can take out of your training time and deposit in all avenues of life. What might be possible if every step you take carries God in His fullness and you can partner with that?

WEBSITE HIGHLIGHTS

Impact Possibilities

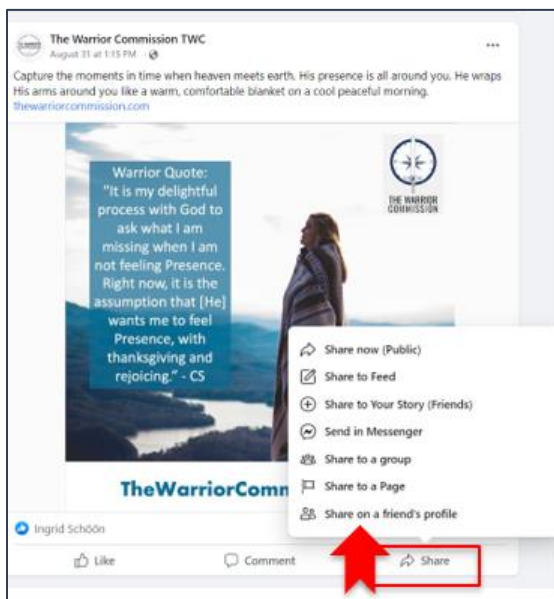

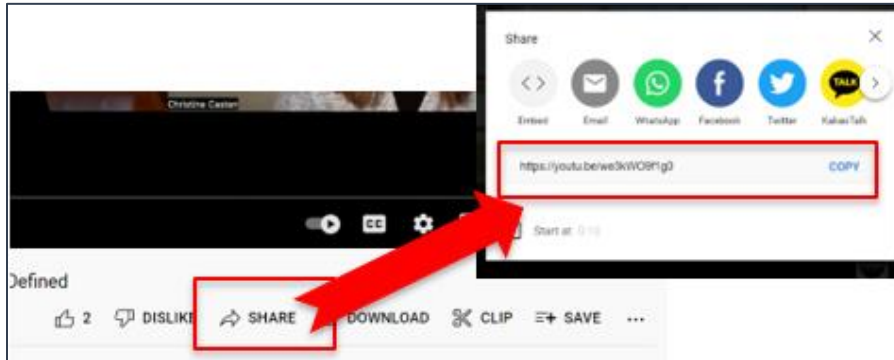

I recently went exploring on the Public side of The Warrior Commission website. It is a fun place to see what visitors to our community are blessed to encounter. I found that the blog page on the Public side of the website is the same as the blog page on the member only Warrior side of the website. These amazing blogs are great to share with your friends and family to encourage them in the Lord and let them know a little bit more about The Warrior Commission. Here are the easy steps:

- Go to the Public side of the website and scroll all the way down (make sure you are not logged in as a member).
- Click on the link – Blog or type in <https://thewarriorcommission.com/blog>
- Once the page comes on click on one of the blogs, or on one of the YouTube channel posts.
- Once it comes up, the location of that article or video will be in the internet search bar on your computer.
- Copy that address.
- Paste that address into the space where you create a post on whatever social media platform you prefer, write a note about why you like this, and hit post.

You cannot do this with the information on the member only Warrior side of the Website, only with the information on the Public side of the Website. This is a YouTube address linking you to a tutorial giving you visual instructions on how to post on a social media platform:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zQp5z2a6VMA>

You can use very simple steps to share directly from the Warrior Commission Now! YouTube channel if you find a video blog (vlog) that touches you. Simply open a video blog, click on the SHARE link to open the Share options. You can click on one of the buttons or click on COPY to put the link on the clipboard on your computer to be pasted wherever you like.

If you are in Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, etc. and see a TWC post you would like to share, an easy method is to simply click the share icon. Below is a picture of what comes up once you click that button on Facebook. You may then decide how you would like to post that shared content.

These are ideas for how you can impact the world around you with your TWC community. The Internet gives us so many options to impact the world around us. Why not embrace all TWC has to offer to make a positive Kingdom focused impact?
