THE BRILLIANCE OF THE MULTIFACETED DIAMOND, THE WARRIOR COMMISSION

By Kathy Brown

The brilliance of a diamond comes from the molecular structure it is made of that has the capacity to reflect light. But it isn't until the diamond is cut into multiple facets that the beauty and luminosity come through, and the light that touches the diamond is then reflected in dazzling glory.

The Master Creator God uniquely designed each one of us individually from the very beginning of time. He placed in us the potential of being a reflection of His glory when we were formed in our mother's womb. As we grew in life, we were given choices to allow Him to develop the potential within us that is made in His image, His nature, His glory.

"But we all with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory just as by the Spirit of the Lord." 2Cor 3:18

You are a unique, one-of-a-kind reflection of the glory of the Lord. You were crafted by the Master to carry a piece of His majesty that only you were created to carry. God deposited in you His image that only you, as you, yield to His craftsmanship, will reflect His glory back to Him.

Together, in this community, the beauty of the glory you carry joins with all of us in the unique expression of God's glory as a magnificent Multifaceted Diamond - The Warrior Commission. Each facet of who God is in each one of us combines to a greater brilliance.

Our commission in The Warrior Commission is for you to discover your unique identity and purpose in Jesus. That you would live your Co-Mission with God. As we come together, growing in one heart to love our God and love one another, growing in our identity and commission, we are a brilliant manifestation of His glory on the earth - The Kingdom of God.

WHAT A GEM!

By Byron Easterling

It was a blessing to see so many on the call as we emerged from the winter ebb. What a beautiful site. We are a multi-faceted gem, for sure. There is an adage said to have been spoken by Henry Kissinger about diamonds being formed as pressurized coal. It's only saying and not factual. The only truth about diamonds being formed from coal is they are both formed underground and with pressure. That's pretty much where the similarities end.

Coal is formed closer to the surface by plant and carbon substances, while diamonds are purer and develop deeper in the earth only through carbons. Are you catching my drift? The deeper we go, the more refined we become. Although coal has been a helpful substance, it lacks purity and resilience. I'm looking forward to us going deeper this year and becoming the resilient gem the Father has created us to be.

Have you ever thought of the Lord's Prayer as Jesus' "Impact Prayer"?

"This, then, is how you should pray: "'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.' For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins."
(Matthew 6:9-15 NIV)

Coaches Corner: MULTIFACETED DIAMOND By Gabriela Pappas

The Lord showed me how He saw me as His multifaceted diamond. I was humbled by His goodness. He showed me a blue, silver/ white diamond. Very much like the diamond above. I could not wait to explore what each color meant.

Cobalt Blue ~ The color means Heavenly love of truth. Blue is also the color of God, His moral law and represents the Truth

Silver / White ~ Purity, Righteousness, and God's Love. It also represents the beautiful and absolute purity of God, and Christ's Absolute Goodness

As I meditated on how God saw me, I realized in myself I could never be these things. It was all up to God to work the miraculous transformation. That is the Love of our good, good God! Jesus wants to show you how He sees you and how you reflect His brilliance and love.

There are still deep areas of my mind and heart that do not believe I deserve His love, but as I am learning in TWC, it is not about what I think in my brain, but what God tells me. He sees me as His beautiful, pure, Bride and He is really excited about getting to know me more and more as I step out in faith. It is scary at times, but it is so worth the effort of getting to know Him as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. So next time He wakes you up, get up and spend some time with the lover of your soul.

As you look deep into your heart what is God showing you? What does your multifaceted diamond look like?

I hope you ponder these questions as you enjoy Jesus in your quiet times set aside just for him. Keep revisiting these questions the next time doubts assail you. In Jesus' eyes you are priceless. If you have not had the chance to do Stage 3, I would highly encourage you to do that Stage. It is all about God rewiring our brains to see ourselves as he does.

You are His special beloved, and He cherishes you just as you are.

TRAINING HIGHLIGHTS

PRAYING INTO BEING WHO YOU ARE

TWC's Impact Prayer for 2023 (see Website Highlight for more info) is a declaration of what is ours, and yours, that is in our unveiled face mentioned in 2 Corinthians 3:17-18. This Impact Prayer, as part of your personal intercession, clears space for you to receive what God wants to release for you and take you deeper into His heart for those around you. Your intercession for yourself, and TWC, helps establish the upgrades in identity and authority that are being revealed. Consider it a polishing cloth for the diamond that you are.

Another type of Impact Prayer that will support God's unveiling and polishing, another way of saying transformation, is below. It is a concise release of things that block or distract from our forward motion. As with all Impact Prayers, they are provided as templates that you can make your own by adjusting, adding, refining, organizing in such a way that it fits your identity, personality, and journey.

In praying this prayer below, the Lord may want you to pause, to reflect on a particular aspect of the prayer to take it deeper. Intercession is interactive with God. Holy Spirit, your Counselor and Comforter, knows what you need to heal, refresh, and clean your heart so that it is fertile soil for the garden of your life. The kind of soil that will support the beauty of His transformation of you.

Father God, I embrace Your design of me to reflect Your light and Your glory. I give to You, Jesus, since You've already died for it, any belief, practice, thought pattern or behavior, that is not in alignment with Your truth of that design. I repent for ever disagreeing with Your truth and settling for the ways of this fallen world. I forgive myself and anyone else who promoted something that wasn't Your truth, Your light, Your design. I receive that You, Lord, have something different for me because I am a child of God and a citizen of Heaven. I say, "yes," to being the diamond You created me to be and to shine Your light in alignment with Your design of me – reflecting You from glory to glory.
