Embracing Expansion in a Year of New Beginnings

by Meagan Blessing

God moved in the nothingness, building momentum as if winding something up to let it go. With a Word, He released energy in the form of light, and the expansion of the universe began.

I love new beginnings. They are like seeds that hold endless opportunities and possibilities, waiting to bear fruit in favorable conditions. Something about the notion of starting again carries motivation and imparts grace for inevitable challenges ahead.

Beginnings bring to mind an image of Holy Spirit brooding over the face of the waters (Gen 1:2). In this preparatory pause during the inky predawn of time, all was not still. God moved in the nothingness, building momentum as if winding something up to let it go. With a Word, He released energy in the form of light, and the expansion of the universe began.

Inertia birthed momentum.

A miracle.

An impossibility.

A testament that with God, all things are possible (Phil. 4:13).

Creation was a period of rapid change. God built a structure to hold the weight of the blessing He intended for it to contain. He has repeated this pattern millions of times over millennia, perpetually sparking fresh cycles of growth and increase. I believe 2025 marks a spiritually significant year; one where there is a convergence of beginnings spinning into motion simultaneously.

In the last month, God has given me a literal taste of the expansion I believe He has planned for us in 2025. I'm confident we could all recount a spiritual or personal development experience already this year. Everyone I know has dealt with recent, brilliant challenges and been surprised by unexpected blessings.

As The Warrior Commission, we enter this 2025 training season ready to enlarge our internal and external territory immensely. What has God given you grace for this year? He is up to something epic. Together, we prepare to stretch our tent pegs, lengthen our ropes, and push the boundaries of our comfort zones.

Collectively, we cover territory we cannot cover alone. Holy Spirit hovers with excitement over 2025, forming our landscape. As new paths become available for exploration, our increased understanding of His words for this time will illuminate our way (Deut. 8:3), giving needed grace to move forward with unity and purpose.

In this new beginning, what will we co-create with Him?

The Beauty of the Lord

by Sharon Rudolph

I ASSURE YOU, MOST SOLEMNLY I TELL YOU, UNLESS A GRAIN OF WHEAT FALLS INTO THE EARTH AND DIES, IT REMAINS [JUST ONE GRAIN; IT NEVER BECOMES MORE BUT LIVES] BY ITSELF ALONE. BUT IF IT DIES, IT PRODUCES MANY OTHERS AND YIELDS A RICH HARVEST. JOHN 12:24 AMPC

We each carry a seed of God's design and love from our creation. When as we choose to receive Christ, Jesus plants His seed of love in us, often times before we even realize it. We are brought into the love relationship Jesus has with His Father, so we go beyond being loved by God as His creation to being loved by Him like He loves His Son.

God delights in you as part of His garden and TWC's garden. God is into Gardening. We bless Him in our blooming and bearing fruit. For each of us, the dying and producing of seeds may look different. The most important part is the partnership with the Master Gardener, Jesus, and Holy Spirit's power in us.

We pour out His love in our blooming, even if it seems it is about us. He is glorified as we live our lives. The more we grow in Christ, the more opportunities we have to go through the process of withering and falling from the plant so the seeds created by the blooming can flow out to others. It is not about what we make happen but about living in Him. It is part of the natural, supernatural process of living our Sonship.

His seed of love in us ends up multiplying into more seeds of love to be planted (given away) and a multiplication of His love is expressed through each of us. This is John 12:24.

Within The Warrior Commission's garden, you have space and freedom to practice blooming and dying in a caring community where the Lord allows us to explore, pioneer, influence, and be a catalyst for the good of others. Discussion happens, questions are asked and answered, and people care for one another. We also call each other up to what God is showing us is possible. God's beauty is seen in all these things as the garden thrives, changes, and expands. In 2025 we, in TWC, are being called freshly to live, grow, die, and live again. It is a celebration of the beauty of God and His garden.

Garden of Unity Impact Prayer

We dream outside the box with our God toward a vast garden landscape of His people, the body of Christ. Each person, each portion, is cultivated in a brilliant and creative display of color, compliment and contrast. We are part of His master planned Garden of Unity.

(TWC's Portion) God, help us envision The Warrior Commission's portion of the Garden. Open our eyes to the variety of brilliant colors You cultivate. As we partner with You, our creative God, we will design a whimsical, fantastical, and yet practical creation.

(My Connection) Help me live in vulnerable unity with You and others. Grow me so our TWC garden can be a climax community. Move Your winds in TWC's parkland, bring my voice into unity of sound, releasing a symphony of praise and worship.

(TWC's Roots) As each of us grow and bear fruit, help us remember the foundations of our roots and how they intertwine. This interweaving makes us stronger in the storms of life. Together we hold ground, cultivate, and encourage the harvest through our maturity.

(My Growth) My training equips me to live in the maturity of a flower in full bloom. I release a fragrance that fills the room. I live with vibrant color. I carry compassionate strength because of fighting through hardships in life. I bloom with the fullness of all I am in God.

(TWC's Reforming) We will reform, update and cultivate this garden as we step into a deeper connection of Your love. In this time, God gently unfolds the fabric of The Warrior Commission's seeds of promise. They have been hidden within the folds of our lives, protected and safe. It will be a time to celebrate God's presence as He walks with us.

(My Focus) As I die to self, pain is wiped away. In God, my blossom will bloom and wither so the seeds can be released. I will expand, multiply and bloom again. God has more promises for me. More seeds to plant and a multiplication of Him expressed through me.

(TWC's Hope) In life, the process of growth is not about dryness or death. It includes seasons of ebb and flow. This is a new planting season. New life, new horizons, new blossoms to create. We are understanding our unique identity in the body. It's time to look toward what is to come so we can forerun again. Revelation for today and tomorrow is where the seeds of promise, provision and inheritance will thrive.

(My Promise) As I link arms with fellow Warriors, we will plant seeds in this newly forming garden. The plants that grow will be unlike any others I have known or seen. For these seeds are heavenly seeds that will sprout, grow and create a new spiritual harvest for me, The Warrior Commission and the body of Christ.

What Do You Want?

When Jesus was doing ministry on earth, He asked a lot of questions. He would ask people “What do you want of me?” (John 1:38; Mark 10:51) I believe with our training within The Warrior Commission, sometimes it is a valid question. Has the Lord been asking you “What do you want in this Journey with Me? What do you want to see, experience, do?”

Within TWC, we state that our commission is to encourage, equip and empower you in your commission. In short, our commission helps you discover and live your commission. To us, this means we help you discover your identity in Christ and help you live in it by training you in how to overcome internal and external obstacles that keep you from deeper relationship with God.

This question “what do you want?” ties into your exploration of your commission, your identity, your intimacy with God. As you attend calls and put time into the activations in whatever Training Module you are exploring, you have coaches and facilitators who want to help you receive what you want. There is so much more in God than we can imagine. Why not spend some time considering this question as you begin 2025. At the end of the year, what would you like to see, experience, receive?

You can bring what you discover or decide on to the next call you attend. How might that call support your adventure? You could email the coaches at twc.warriorepic@gmail.com and ask a coach for help with what you have come up with as your desire. It is OK to embrace what the Lord has put on your heart to pursue and we in TWC want to help you receive it.

Being in a CoNexus Hub is like navigating the rivers and currents of mighty waters within the safe space of a CoNexus Whitewater Raft. This raft is much like a trellis that connects and weaves the lives and hearts of all its members. Together they explore and navigate life's streams, strengthened and reassured by their loving connections. Could it be that CoNexus is the raft that will facilitate growth and expansion in this new season's currents of change?

As we journey together in our CoNexus Hub's Raft, we draw strength, courage, and accelerated transformation from the synergy created by our unity and the measures of sonship we are learning to abide in.
